Would not be Without

VEGETINE!

FOR TEN TIMES ITS COST.

The great benefit I received from the use of VEGETINE induces me to give my testimony in its favor. I believe it to be not only of great value for restoring the health, but a preventive of diseases peculiar to the spring and summer seasons. I would not be without it for ten times its cost.

EDWIN TILDEN,
Attorney, and General Agent for Massachusetts of the Craftsmen's Life Assurance Company, No. 49 Sears Building, Boston, Mass.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood and Restores the Health.

WHAT IS VEGETINE?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep, as has been proved by many an aged person. It is a great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

Marvelous Effect.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I have used the great Blood Remedy, Vegetine, and feel it a duty to acknowledge the great benefit it has done me. In the Spring of the year 1869, I was sick from general debility caused by overwork, want of sleep and proper rest. I was very weak and much emaciated. I tried many remedies without receiving any benefit from any of them, until I was persuaded to try Vegetine. Before I had taken this one week, my improved condition gave me renewed hope and courage. I continued to take it every day, gaining more strength, until I was completely restored to health. The effect of this remedy, in case of general debility, is indeed marvellous.

ELIZABETH A. FOLEY,

CHALESTOWN, June 11, 1861.

MR. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—This is to certify that Vegetine made a perfect cure of me when my attending physician has pronounced my case consumption, and said I could not survive many days.

MRS. LEDSTON, 35 Cook Street.

The facts stated by Mrs. Ledston are personally known by me, and they are true.

The Intellectual Powers of Birds.

On the whole, however, it may be safely said that birds seem to have much more capacity for perceiving beauty, much more gift for social enjoyment, a finer knowledge of distance and direction, and more power of vocal imitation, than other order of animals of which we know anything. On the other hand, they have less sense of power and sympathy than the dog, and therefore much less sense of responsibility to their superiors, whom they often love, but seldom serve. Perhaps we might generalize these mental qualifications by saying that birds are chiefly educated by perceptions, wonderfully accurate indeed, but still of things at a distance, of things at an almost telescopic range; that their rapidity of flight makes them creatures of wide experience, but not of full experience of any species but their own; and that, as a result, they cannot know men well enough to learn as much from men as dogs and cats and elephants and even other orders of creatures learn. Birds, in short, get bird's-eye views of the earth, and bird's-eye views, however instructive to those who have previously mastered the details carefully, do not exactly furnish a good basis for progressive knowledge. They obviously get a knowledge of geography, and in some sense of the air and its currents, such as no other creatures can have.—They have an ear for music and an eye for harmony of form and color, and probably of movement—for there are bird-dances which Taglioni would have despaired of imitating—such as no other member of the animal world possesses; and the perception of beauty, we know, depends on nothing so much as the coup d'œil, and this birds can always command. But they lose, by their great privilege of wings, that slow and sure experience of the ways of man which some less gifted animals acquire. A swift bird which flies at the rate of 270 miles an hour, according to Mr. Leith Adams, clearly cannot have a brain to utilize an experience acquired at that rate in any but a very perfunctory way. Therefore, though birds have so strange a perception of beauty, which hardly needs close analysis, they are too fast, too migratory in their habits to learn anything which needs perfect fidelity and vigilance confined to a very narrow circle of facts. They are the musicians, and we might almost say the sensuous poets of the animal world; but musicians and sensuous poets do not conduce to progressive knowledge and ethical culture. Birds range too high and fly too fast for sympathy with man, and so it happens that their intellectual powers, remarkable and unique as they are in the animal world, never become so human and so almost spiritual as those of creatures which can only boast of very inferior powers. —Spectator.

An Hotel on Wheels.

The American carriage and wagon builders have a world-wide reputation for light work, says the Carriage Monthly; and as our cousins across the water have repeatedly stated that we carry this idea of lightness to extremes, we are now prepared to inform them that we can build also an occasional heavy vehicle. To Philadelphia, justly celebrated for light work, please remember to give the credit for building the heaviest heavy carriage on record. The following dimensions will be sufficiently startling, but we can vouch for their correctness, inasmuch as we have seen the drawing and copied the sizes.

DIMENSIONS OF BODY.—Length: 50 feet; width: 20 feet; hight: 16 feet. The carriage body is two stories high. The first story is 8 feet in the clear, and the second story 7 feet, exclusive of the arch of the roof, which at the center gives 8 feet in the clear, and the second story 7 feet exclusive of the arch of the roof, which at the center gives 8 feet head room. Entrance is provided for at the front and back ends. The roof has ventilators similar to a street car. There are 16 arch top windows, on each side, 8 below and 8 above. Those in the first story are 2 feet 6 inches wide, and 4 feet 9 inches high, and in the second story, 2 feet 6 inches wide, and 4 feet high. They have each two sashes, which are arranged to be raised and lowered. Those in the first story are divided into four lights each, and those above into two lights each.—The upper windows are provided with shutters or blinds. The immense body or house, whichever you please to call it, will be hung upon platform springs, which will be in all of sufficient strength to support 25 tons weight. The wheels will be 3 feet 3 inches and 4 feet 4 inches in diameter respectively. Hub: 18 inches in diameter; felloes: 9 inches on the tread, and 6 inches deep. The Brobdignagian wagon is intended for hotel purposes during the Centennial Exhibition. The first story will be used as a dining saloon, and the second story will contain 16 state rooms, with 2 berths in each. It is proposed to place this portable hotel somewhere on the exhibition grounds, there to remain stationary until the close of the exhibition. The gearing or carriage part will have no other to perform than to support the body in going to and from the exhibition grounds.—Scientific American.

Plenty of Guano.

The news from Peru to the 27th of March shows that all doubts about the new discovery of guano had been set at rest. The Commission of Engineers sent to state the truth about the new deposits say there are at least 9,000,000 tons of guano as good as that of the Chinchas or the Macabi Islands. This wonderful wealth lies north of the river Loa, which divides Peru from Bolivia. Her Britannic Majesty's Steamship Petrel, whose officers examined the matter for themselves, confirm the view taken by the Peruvian Commission.

BREVITIES.

—Daniel Pratt now comes to the surface to say that no man can strike a harder blow by spitting on his hands first, and that it is a useless custom, which he would like to see abolished.

—An uncle left eleven silver spoons to his nephew in his will, adding, "He knows the reason I have not left him the whole dozen." The nephew had stolen one.

—Two large Newfoundland dogs were fighting fiercely on the track at Detroit, Mich., last Monday, when a locomotive dashed up and made sausage meat of the pair in an instant.

—A Green Bay preacher rode thirteen miles married a couple on the ice, took fifty cents as his fee and returned home without losing his bland smile.

—"Like the dog in the manger," dubiously remarks a Western man of the crusaders, "they won't drink themselves and they won't let anybody else drink."

—A girl of ten, of Biddeford, Me., discharged a pistol at a two year old child the other day, sending the ball clear through its head; but the doctors say the child may recover.

—One cent was a Scranton clergyman's fee for performing the marriage ceremony for a couple on Easter Sunday. The friends hope that the officiating minister will prove as one sent from God to the bride and groom.

OPINIONS OF DISTINGUISHED AMERICANS.

"No. 17 Arlington St., London, England. Jan. 6, 1870.

"I thank you for the opportunity of expressing my opinion of the great value of the 'NEW AMERICAN' and 'ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA.' I own the work and have it with me here, and am in the habit of consulting it every day to my very great advantage. It is most admirable. J. L. MOTLEY,
"U. S. Minister to the Court of St. James."

"Philadelphia, Nov. 1, 1869.

I consider the New American Cyclopaedia, published by D. Appleton & Co., vastly superior for the American reader to any other Cyclopaedia now before the public. REV. BISHOP SIMPSON."

"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.

I own Appletons' Cyclopaedia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it.
CHARLES SUMNER."

"I use the 'New American Cyclopaedia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude.
JAMES PARTON."

"Tribune Office, N. Y. City, Oct. 30, 1869.

MY DEAR SIR: I have used the 'New American Cyclopaedia' since the first volume came into existence, and deem it the best work of the kind in print. Yours, &c., HORACE GREELEY."

"North Shore, S. I., N. Y., Oct. 19, 1869.

Appletons' Cyclopaedia is unquestionably the best popular manual of general reference for an American. GEORGE WILLIAM CURTIS."

"Washington, Nov. 12, 1869.

DEAR SIR: I quite agree with Mr. Curtis, that the 'New American Cyclopaedia' is 'the best manual of general reference for an American.' The annual continuations are also of great value.

WHEREAS, DEFAULT HAS been made in the payment of the money secured by a mortgage dated the 1st day of April, 1870, executed by John D. Deyo, widower, of the Town of Shawangunk, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, to Jane Smith, then the wife of Gardinier Smith, of the Town of Hurley, in the County and State aforesaid, to secure the payment of thirty-seven hundred dollars with interest thereon from the date thereof on the first day of April, 1875, and which mortgage was recorded in the Clerk's office of said County of Ulster in Book No. 110 of mortgages, on page 285, &c., on the 21st day of March, 1872, at 2½ o'clock P. M.

And whereas the said Jane Smith died intestate on the 11th day of January, 1874, leaving Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, all above twenty-one years of age, as her only children and heirs-at-law, her surviving.

And whereas the said Cornelius C. Smith, John F. Smith, Richard C. Smith, Mary Dennis and Jeannette Van Wagenen, duly assigned and transferred all their right, title and interest in and to the said mortgage, and the bond accompanying the same, to their father, Gardinier Smith, by assignment dated the 31st day of January, 1874, duly recorded in the said Ulster County Clerk's office.

And whereas the amount claimed to be due upon said mortgage at the time of the first publication of this notice is the sum of three thousand nine hundred and ninety-one dollars and sixteen cents, to-wit: $3,700 of principal and $291.16 of interest, and which is the whole amount claimed to be unpaid on said mortgage.

Now, therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained and duly recorded as aforesaid and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described, at Public Auction at the front door of the Court House, in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, on the 20th day of May, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

The premises are described in the mortgage as follows: All that certain lot, piece or parcel of land situate in the Town of Shawangunk aforesaid, and is known and distinguished as being the same farm now owned and occupied by John D. Deyo, and is described in three lots or parcels of land as follows, namely: Beginning with the lot the said John D. Deyo purchased from Willet Leuderman and his wife Sarah, and at a corner on the west side of the highway leading to Kingston, then as the needle pointed in 1820 north fifty degrees twenty minutes, west twenty-eight chains fourteen links to a corner of a lot of land sold to Joseph Eckert, then along the same south forty-two and three-quarter degrees west four chains seventy-one links, then north forty-five degrees forty-five minutes west seven chains to the center of a highway leading to Kintsonville; the two last courses are as the needle now points; then as it pointed in 1820 south twenty-nine degrees and forty-five minutes west seven chains and fifty links to a lot bought by Samuel Aldrich and others, then south fifty degrees twenty minutes east twenty-nine chains thirty links to a stone set by the westerly side of the aforesaid highway, then along the same to the beginning, containing thirty-six acres of land.

Also all that other lot purchased from Samuel Aldrich and others, and bounded as follows, namely: North by the above described lot, east by the public highway, south by lands of Peter Van Aken, west by the lands of Abram Vernooy, containing forty acres of land more or less.

Also all that other lot of land which is known as the same farm formerly owned by Jonathan Terwilliger, and is bounded as follows, namely: Beginning at a corner of land belonging to the heirs of William Roseknans, from thence south seventy-five degrees and thirty minutes west two chains sixteen links to the line of the first described lot, then along the same north forty-seven degrees west ten chains thirty-one links, then north forty degrees and forty-five minutes east four chains and seventy-four links, then south thirty-two degrees forty-five minutes east eleven chains ninety-four links to the beginning, containing three acres and eight-tenths of an acre of land.

Now therefore, notice is hereby given that by virtue of the said mortgage and the power of sale therein contained, and duly recorded as aforesaid; and in pursuance of the statute in such case made and provided, the said mortgage will be foreclosed by a sale of the premises therein described at public auction at the front door of the Court House, in the city of Kingston, in the county of Ulster, and state of New York, on the 12th day of June, 1874, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day.

Would not be Without

VEGETINE!

FOR TEN TIMES ITS COST.

The great benefit I received from the use of VEGETINE induces me to give my testimony in its favor. I believe it to be not only of great value for restoring the health, but a preventive of diseases peculiar to the spring and summer seasons. I would not be without it for ten times its cost.
EDWIN TILDEN,
Attorney, and General Agent for Massachusetts of the Craftsmen's Life Assurance Company, No. 49 Sears Building, Boston, Mass.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood and Restores the Health.

WHAT IS VEGETINE?

It is a compound extracted from barks, roots and herbs. It is Nature's Remedy. It is perfectly harmless from any bad effect upon the system. It is nourishing and strengthening. It acts directly upon the blood. It quiets the nervous system. It gives you good, sweet sleep at night. It is a great panacea for our aged fathers and mothers, for it gives them strength, quiets their nerves, and gives them Nature's sweet sleep, as has been proved by many an aged person. It is a great Blood Purifier. It is a soothing remedy for our children. It has relieved and cured thousands. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

Marvelous Effect.

Mr. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—I have used the great Blood Remedy, Vegetine, and feel it a duty to acknowledge the great benefit it has done me. In the Spring of the year 1862, I was sick from general debility caused by overwork, want of sleep and proper rest. I was very weak and much emaciated. I tried many remedies without receiving any benefit from any of them, until I was persuaded to try Vegetine. Before I had taken this one week, my improved condition gave me renewed hope and courage. I continued to take it every day, gaining more strength, until I was completely restored to health. The effect of this remedy, in case of general debility, is indeed marvellous.
ELIZABETH A. FOLEY,

CHALESTOWN, June 11, 1861.
Mr. H. R. STEVENS: Dear Sir—This is to certify that Vegetine made a perfect cure of me when my attending physician has pronounced my case consumption, and said I could not survive many days.

The Intellectual Powers of Birds.

On the whole, however, it may be safely said that birds seem to have much more capacity for perceiving beauty, much more gift for social enjoyment, a finer knowledge of distance and direction, and more power of vocal imitation, than other order of animals of which we know anything. On the other hand, they have less sense of power and sympathy than the dog, and therefore much less sense of responsibility to their superiors, whom they often love, but seldom serve. Perhaps we might generalize these mental qualifications by saying that birds are chiefly educated by perceptions, wonderfully accurate indeed, but still of things at a distance, of things at an almost telescopic range; that their rapidity of flight makes them creatures of wide experience, but not of full experience of any species but their own; and that, as a result, they cannot know men well enough to learn as much from men as dogs and cats and elephants and even other orders of creatures learn. Birds, in short, get bird's-eye views of the earth, and bird's-eye views, however instructive to those who have previously mastered the details carefully, do not exactly furnish a good basis for progressive knowledge. They obviously get a knowledge of geography, and in some sense of the air and its currents, such as no other creatures can have.—They have an ear for music and an eye for harmony of form and color, and probably of movement—for there are bird-dances which Taglioni would have despaired of imitating—such as no other member of the animal world possesses; and the perception of beauty, we know, depends on nothing so much as the coup d'œil, and this birds can always command. But they lose, by their great privilege of wings, that slow and sure experience of the ways of man which some less gifted animals acquire. A swift bird which flies at the rate of 270 miles an hour, according to Mr. Leith Adams, clearly cannot have a brain to utilize an experience acquired at that rate in any but a very perfunctory way. Therefore, though birds have so strange a perception of beauty, which hardly needs close analysis, they are too fast, too migratory in their habits to learn anything which needs perfect fidelity and vigilance confined to a very narrow circle of facts. They are the musicians, and we might almost say the sensuous poets of the animal world; but musicians and sensuous poets do not conduce to progressive knowledge and ethical culture. Birds range too high and fly too fast for sympathy with man, and so it happens that their intellectual powers, remarkable and unique as they are in the animal world, never become so human and so almost spiritual as those of creatures which can only boast of very inferior powers. —Spectator.

An Hotel on Wheels,

The American carriage and wagon builders have a world-wide reputation for light work, says the Carriage Monthly; and as our cousins across the water have repeatedly stated that we carry this idea of lightness to extremes, we are now prepared to inform them that we can build also an occasional heavy vehicle. To Philadelphia, justly celebrated for light work, please remember to give the credit for building the heaviest heavy carriage on record. The following dimensions will be sufficiently startling, but we can vouch for their correctness, inasmuch as we have seen the drawing and copied the sizes.

DIMENSIONS OF BODY.—Length: 50 feet; width: 20 feet; hight: 16 feet. The carriage body is two stories high. The first story is 8 feet in the clear, and the second story 7 feet, exclusive of the arch of the roof, which at the center gives 8 feet in the clear, and the second story 7 feet exclusive of the arch of the roof, which at the center gives 8 feet head room. Entrance is provided for at the front and back ends. The roof has ventilators similar to a street car. There are 16 arch top windows, on each side, 8 below and 8 above. Those in the first story are 2 feet 6 inches wide, and 4 feet 9 inches high, and in the second story, 2 feet 6 inches wide, and 4 feet high. They have each two sashes, which are arranged to be raised and lowered. Those in the first story are divided into four lights each, and those above into two lights each.—The upper windows are provided with shutters or blinds. The immense body or house, whichever you please to call it, will be hung upon platform springs, which will be in all of sufficient strength to support 25 tons weight. The wheels will be 3 feet 3 inches and 4 feet 4 inches in diameter respectively. Hub: 18 inches in diameter; felloes: 9 inches on the tread, and 6 inches deep. The Brobdignagian wagon is intended for hotel purposes during the Centennial Exhibition. The first story will be used as a dining saloon, and the second story will contain 16 state rooms, with 2 berths in each. It is proposed to place this portable hotel somewhere on the exhibition grounds, there to remain stationary until the close of the exhibition. The gearing or carriage part will have no other to perform than to support the body in going to and from the exhibition grounds.—Scientific American.

Plenty of Guano.

The news from Peru to the 27th of March shows that all doubts about the new discovery of guano had been set at rest. The Commission of Engineers sent to state the truth about the new deposits say there are at least 9,000,000 tons of guano as good as that of the Chinchas or the Macabi Islands. This wonderful wealth lies north of the river Loa, which divides Peru from Bolivia. Her Britannic Majesty's Steamship Petrel, whose officers examined the matter for themselves, confirm the view taken by the Peruvian Commission.

BREVITIES.

—Daniel Pratt now comes to the surface to say that no man can strike a harder blow by spitting on his hands first, and that it is a useless custom, which he would like to see abolished.

—An uncle left eleven silver spoons to his nephew in his will, adding, "He knows the reason I have not left him the whole dozen." The nephew had stolen one.

—Two large Newfoundland dogs were fighting fiercely on the track at Detroit, Mich., last Monday, when a locomotive dashed up and made sausage meat of the pair in an instant.

—A Green Bay preacher rode thirteen miles married a couple on the ice, took fifty cents as his fee and returned home without losing his bland smile.

—"Like the dog in the manger," dubiously remarks a Western man of the crusaders, "they won't drink themselves and they won't let anybody else drink."

—A girl of ten, of Biddeford, Me., discharged a pistol at a two year old child the other day, sending the ball clear through its head; but the doctors say the child may recover.

—One cent was a Scranton clergyman's fee for performing the marriage ceremony for a couple on Easter Sunday. The friends hope that the officiating minister will prove as one sent from God to the bride and groom.

"I thank you for the opportunity of expressing my opinion of the great value of the 'NEW AMERICAN' and 'ANNUAL CYCLOPÆDIA.' I own the work and have it with me here, and am in the habit of consulting it every day to my very great advantage. It is most admirable. J. L. MOTLEY,

I consider the New American Cyclopædia, published by D. Appleton & Co., vastly superior for the American reader to any other Cyclopædia now before the public. REV. BISHOP SIMPSON."
"Boston, Oct. 25, 1869.
I own Appletons' Cyclopædia, and use it constantly. It should be in every library, public and private—I would say in every house, within reach of every family. The young should use it.
CHARLES SUMNER."
"I use the 'New American Cyclopædia' every day, generally many times a day. I think it the best work of the kind in existence. It is singularly well suited to families. The children who grow up in a house where there is a copy of it within reach, can hardly escape becoming well-informed persons. I value it very highly, and am glad of this opportunity of testifying my gratitude.

Livingstone—In Memoriam.

The Livingstone memorial meeting, held on Thursday night at the Academy of Music, was well conceived and carried out in good taste. Now that the identical body of the great explorer rests in its well-earned place in Westminster, it is fully competent for us to say how great a man David Livingstone assuredly was. Side by side with him, he rises higher than the antique Marco Polo, who made tropical travel a thing of profit; while he gained nothing but immortality. Men hold this last to be a desirable reward when it completes the catalogue of more tangible benisons coming first—not sooner. Livingstone thought of no reward at all; so he did not miss the least and unconsciously won the greatest. His is one of the names whose relish will improve with time—when his story is more fully known and his motives freed from misinterpretation or suspicion. Whether or not his manuscripts will clearly indicate the true solution to the vexed question of the source of the Nile, there can be no peradventure as to his having unveiled something vastly more important and advantageous, the source of the River of Life—sacrifice and self-renunciation. Like the model Norseman spoken of by Dr. Hayes, he could "ride a horse, bend a bow and speak the truth." All around his worn and wearied clay in the sombre old church by the Thames, lie the bones of plenty of people who were not skillful at either. Above all other deeds and accomplishments the highest good any man can do for his race is to help redeem our faith in human nature and in God—Livingstone did this and therefore takes no strange honor from sleeping in the crypts of kings.

The Veto as a Political Measure.

It seems hardly possible that the veto will be without some positive effect on political parties. It depends of course very much upon the action of prominent inflation men. If Morton, Logan and other leading Republicans with inflation sentiments ground their arms at once and make a complete surrender, there will be no particular change in the two parties; inflation being made, like many other important matters, something upon which Republicans will agree to disagree.

But the chances do not seem to favor the quiet submission of these prominent Western gentlemen. They are not of that kind of people, and ordinarily cling very tenaciously to the political course they once choose. Morton as a political leader could hardly give an excuse for continuance in political circles except the difficulty of choosing between burial and cremation, if he confesses himself so soon done for in the inflation matter. Expecting to ride into the presidential nomination on a tidal wave of easy money, he must abandon all hopes of the office if he confesses his political error. A presidential candidate can hardly have estimated the inflation strength sufficiently great to carry him into the White House to be convinced even by a veto.

So we judge we are to have a long and acrimonious debate over the matter, in which the inflation members will express themselves plainly and forcibly, and with more or less of temper. This debate, if it comes as is indicated by the caucus of inflationists, will be detrimental to business, as it will tend to increase the feeling of uncertainty that has so long prevailed. And the more inflationists vent their displeasure and exhibit their anger, the wider will become the breach between them and their parties.

For if there is to be a disruption of parties, we fail to see how it can be confined to one. While a large element of the Republican party has come out flat-footed for inflation, yet the larger and more influential portion is still more emphatic against violating the solemn pledges of the government and party as well. But while the Republican party is clearly divided, the Democratic is not a unit, and can neither take the field as a hard money or an inflation party. If inflation is an issue to be fought on political platforms, it clearly cannot be settled by the parties at present in the field.

The more probable political move will be an effort on the part of the Republican leaders to slough off the whole inflation crowd, together with the Sanborn and Jayne gang. The Massachusetts senatorial fight demonstrates that Republicans are sensible of the danger the party is in from these people and are determined to clear the party of them or disfranchise them in the party councils. In all the hubbub of plain and somewhat loud speaking just now indulged in by Republican party papers it is difficult to exactly determine how many followers there are to this array of inflation field and staff officers; but we are inclined to believe it is a Falstaffian brigade, with the companies suffering to the largest degree from paper inflation. The chances we think favor the reconstruction of the Republican party as the nucleus around which hard-money men will gather.

Slowly.

Summer comes slowly; all through the damp and dreary woods the spirit of winter lingers still. Now and then in these late April days the sun breaks away from the clouds that lead him captive and flings us a transient smile—bright but not warm—like the smile of a queen going to execution at the hands of a mob. We take off our coats to "make believe" summer has come and instantly put them on again as an unexpended capfull of March wind, tempered on the high hills, strikes our shoulders and whistles around our manly forms. The grass peeps out of the cold ground timidly—like a chicken-hearted committee of investigation—not as though it were sure of a kind reception and intended to stay. The green mould looks greener and more sepulchral than ever on the brown-stone doorsteps of houses with a northern exposure, while the canvas awnings placed untimely over shop and office windows, seem to be begging pardon for hanging out so palpably ahead of business. Feeble old gentlemen with pulmonary complaints order their carriages for a ride in the presumably warm and soothing sunshine, with ebony doubts about the propriety of risking a kick from winter in coaxing a kiss from spring. Not a shimmer of ice is to be seen along the surface of our grand old river, to be sure, but the water has not yet attained that opalescence which arises only from the saturation of its masses with light and heat. Early birds are holding windy, chattering caucusses in the misty mornings and appear, unlike the heavier bipeds, to favor a policy of contraction for the time being. The swift and beautiful passenger boats lie quietly at their docks, patiently accepting the attention of carpenters, painters and decorators and chewing within their mighty furnace-mouths many a reminiscence of seasons gone; of the belles whose light feet trod their spacious decks and gay cavaliers in linen dusters who devotedly followed them 'round—belles and beaux, alas! who will, some of them, hardly come upon the Powell or Vibbard again; for they know not of the panoramic changes of the year, any more. "But," thinks the graceful steamer within her iron brain, "others just as fair and chivalrous will come in the vacant places, and manhood with tones as deep and girlhood with laughter as sweet will make the same remarks about the scenery and eat ice-cream in shaded nooks just the same as did the unreturning brave and fair in summer days before."

The soft gales and "modest violets blue" linger, as we said; yet our faith in the coming of both is perfect. Nothing is so inexorable and nothing is so kind as law; it takes away and our hearts are broken; it gives, and how complete is the healing in its wings! A few weeks, and cold, snow, mud and bitter, biting winds will be forgotten of childhood and be come only the latest tradition of moody and crooning age; for we shall have in our hands and before our eyes the moist, fresh glory of May—which is a sort of first-fruits of the resurrection from the dead. Summer will come and then—but why anticipate the troubles and nuisances which it will bring along in the shape of extra baggage? enough to endure them when we must. John Paul will begin again to write letters to the Tribune from Saratoga—fools of high and of low degree will begin to rush around the world in the "pursuit of happiness," the right of which was declared by the late Thomas Jefferson to be inalienable from beings of that description—young and inquiring pigs will "inaugurate" a radical administration in the interest of the autumnal pork trade—indiscreet mothers will permit their poorly-balanced offspring to disport themselves by the mouths of open cisterns and well-holes, while the passing undertaker sees and gives no sign—the pensive canaler will enchant the air with his songs of love and passion in the still nights, erewhile his sympathetic mules relax their pace and submit their expansive ears to the gentle titillation of the sighing accordeon—the—but, hold; for a much better thing on this same theme see editorial of our dear brother of the Ellenville Journal.

—That Arkansas war seems to be petering out. Both sides are packs of cowards and the dispute will end in a whirlwind of words.

—Cremation isn't popular in Cincinnati. Consumers of Cincinnati wouldn't burn, any way.

—Here's another sore-head. Ex-President Woolsey of Yale College openly declares that he cannot continue his connection with the Republican party because of its corruption.

—There is an awful time ahead for England. The Czar is going to visit it, with Gortschakoff, Schouvaloff, and a lot more with names of similar termination.

—The Herald retains its characteristic stability of opinion. A few months ago it was howling about Cæsarism, and now it nominates Grant for a third term.

—Kendrick, the deposed Williamsburgh preacher, proposes to fight it out. He can't get in his church and so preaches in a hall, where most of his congregation follow him.

—Richardson's arduous duties have been too much for him, and he is going to travel for his health. That Sanborn contract ought to make any one sick.

—The good sense of the President's veto was so great that it met with a reception seldom extended to such measures. In Rochester a salute of 100 guns was fired.

—It is better to kill a man than to steal a lot of kid gloves. Stokes got four years, and Conklin, the dishonest clerk of Harris Brothers, has been sentenced to four years and six months in prison.

—The leaving of the appointment of the new Capitol Superintendent to Governor Dix is pretty generally considered a wise action. The old Governor isn't likely to appoint a dishonest official.

—The enterprising Washington correspondents were all fooled by the veto. They were unanimous in predicting that the President would sign the bill, and the surest prophecies of this kind came only the day before it was vetoed.

—Here's our old friend, Stanley Matthews of Ohio, who is on the rampage for a new party. It will be a very reckless party that answers Matthews' call. He presided at Cincinnati, but slid out of the new party before the convention adjourned.

—Our readers will doubtless remember an individual who once figured in the United States Senate, but who recently retired from public life, having earned a somewhat equivocal reputation and the soubriquet of "Old Subsidy Pom." Well, he has turned up again—his trial for bribery comes off in May.

—Mr. Hessing of Chicago, the German member of the Illinois Republican Committee, remarked at a recent meeting that unless reforms were immediately begun in party management the Republicans must be overwhelmingly defeated at the Congressional elections in that state next fall.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The survey of the bed of the Pacific Ocean for a cable from America to Asia is progressing favorably. One result of this practical survey has been to substantiate the even surface and depth of the Pacific waters, as they have been theoretically asserted to be by philosophers who have measured the tidal waves between the two continents.

—A school teacher in DeWitt county, Ill., has introduced a new method of punishment into his school. When one of the girls misses a word the lad who spells it has permission to kiss her. The Clinton Public says: "The result is that the girls are fast forgetting all they ever knew about spelling, while the boys are improving with wonderful rapidity."

—Governor William B. Washburne, the new Senator for Massachusetts, is not related to the celebrated Washburne family of which Governor Israel Washburne, Governor C. C. Washburne and E. R. Washburne are members. The new Senator comes from the western part of Massachusetts, and is in no way connected with the others.

—Many of the western states have made haste to mortgage themselves for the benefit of railroad speculations, only to repent at leisure. Minnesota now has a difficult case of this kind on its hands. This state gave a company fourteen full sections of land to the mile of the branch road from St. Paul to Winona, and the company now claims that 75,000 acres of this is occupied by state institutions, and brings suit for its possession.

—A. C. Younglove, Esq., of Vine Valley, (Middlesex), a sort of fruit prophet, writes to the Rochester Union that "Our prospects for a full crop of all varieties of fruit have seldom been more flattering at this season of the year. Grapes, especially, are in fine condition. Peaches are in fair condition—more than enough buds still sound to give us all the trees can mature. Strawberries, notwithstanding the hard, open winter, have come through all sound and in good condition."

—The gossips, who are ever busy with Nilsson's name and movements, have now discovered that she has fallen desperately in love with a pretty American girl; the latter exercising the same fascination over the Swede that she has exercised over other young women. The story is that she went from the Clarendon to the Windsor in order to be near her enslaver, whom she visits daily when in the city, and whom she really worships. The prima donna thinks if she were a man that she would certainly marry the girl, and declares that leaving the latter will be her greatest grief in crossing the Atlantic. She has tried, it is said, to persuade our fair countrywoman to go abroad and live with her; but as the papa objects to this the feminine lovers are destined to be separated. Nilsson promises to return ere long, and at present meditates making her future home in Manhattan—all because of her devotion to her new inamorata.—New York Letter.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Proceedings in Parliament—A Breeze in Commons.

LONDON, April 24.—In the House of Lords to-day the Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary of State for India, said the next harvest in India promised to be abundant and the present provision against famine was undoubtedly ample.

In the House of Commons Mr. Smollet moved that the suddenness of the late dissolution of Parliament is deserving of the censure of the House. He characterized the act as a coup d' etat by which the last government sought unconstitutionally to retain power. He declared that Mr. Gladstone had resorted to a stratagem which was ungenerous to his friends, insolent to his opponents and barely honest to the nation.

Mr. Whalley seconded the motion.

Mr. Gladstone stigmatized the assertion that the dissolution was secretly planned as untrue, absurd and impossible. He challenged a repetition of the word trickster, which had been applied to him, and upon the refusal of Mr. Smollet to repeat it he charged him with lack of decency and manliness. He defended the act of dissolution, which he declared would have been more inconvenient, had it been postponed. On concluding his speech Mr. Gladstone left the House.

The motion was negatived without a division. Much excitement was manifested during and at the close of the debate.

The last parliamentary election, in Wakefield, has been annulled on account of bribery.

THE CASE OF L'AMERIQUE.

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.

Seizure of Counterfeit Coin.

ERIE, Pa., April 24.—Government detectives to-day arrested John Earll and John Eaton and wife in Bloomfield, Crawford county, Pa., on a charge of counterfeiting. The detectives captured a half bushel of counterfeit five cent nickel coin and a lot of dies, &c. The prisoners were lodged in the Erie jail.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Gen. Howard's Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—In the Howard court of inquiry the government rested its case to-day, closing with the examination of Assistant Adjutant General Vincent. General Howard commences with his defence on Monday and expects to occupy a week.

RAILROAD STRIKE.

Movement of Trains Impeded.

CINCINNATI, April 24.—The strike of section hands and bridge men on the Louisville Short Line Railroad still continues. Freight trains are not moving on the road. A morning train will be sent out to-morrow. The water tanks have been tapped all along the line and some of them burned. The strikers refuse to work or to let others work and are reported as saying they mean to hurt nobody, but will persist until their terms are acceded to. It is difficult to obtain full and perfectly reliable news of the matter.

FALL OF A HOUSE.

Two Men Killed.

NEW YORK, April 24.—A three-story frame dwelling house on Stockton street, between Marcy and Tompkins avenues, Brooklyn, fell with a fearful crash at about nine o'clock this morning, burying, it is reported, seven or eight mechanics in the ruins. It appears that the house had been raised a story and was supported by insufficient underpinning, which gave way. Two men were killed outright—Osborn, the boss builder, and Burns, the boss plumber. Two were fatally injured and five seriously hurt. A boy employed in the building at the time is missing and it is believed his body is buried in the ruins.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

The British Lion.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The resolutions of the Common Council tendering to Sir Lambton Lorraine the hospitality and freedom of the city were presented to him this afternoon in the Governor's room of the City Hall by Mayor Havemeyer, to which Sir Lambton made a brief reply to the members of the Common Council, Boards of Aldermen and assistant aldermen and city officials present, whom he bade au revoir when taking his departure.

INVESTIGATING THE OLD WHISKEY RING.

The Congressional Committee of Ways and Means have resolved to investigate the facts connected with the old whiskey ring in this city and have subpœnaed Deputy Clerk Stillwell of the Circuit Court and Major Sidney DeKay, Private Secretary of Gov. Dix, who was United States District Attorney in 1872, to appear before the committee for examination. About two years ago Simon Herman and a number of distillers, rectifiers, Internal Revenue officers and others were indicted in the United States Circuit Court of this district, but none of the indicted parties have been brought to trial, and in Herman's case a nolle prosequi was entered. The prosecution claim that this was done on the payment by Herman of $3,000, $2,000 of which went to a man named Fay, $490 to Sanborn, $490 to the government and $20 to District Attorney Davis. It is stated that it will be shown Sanborn was not entitled to any money, as the prosecution against Herman was begun before the government contract was made with Sanborn.

THE JAY GOULD SUIT.

Jay Gould's counsel asserts that no papers have been served on Gould or himself in the alleged $10,000,000 suit.

THE CREMATIONISTS.

The adjourned meeting of the Cremation Society was held this afternoon. The Committee on Law reported that there was nothing in either the civil or criminal law to make the practice of cremation illegal. Brief addresses on the subject were delivered by Professor Barnard, Rev. Dr. Frothingham and others.

SPRING FRESHETS.

Great Flood in Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 24.—The rains all over the state for the last ten days have raised the water courses, overflowing them for the third time in the last six weeks. The Alabama River has flooded all the lowlands and is still rising. The rain continues to fall heavily. Farming operations are greatly retarded and it is feared much lowland will have to be abandoned. Railroads east of this point are uninjured, but between this city and Mobile and between Selma and Meridian communication is temporarily suspended.

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION.

Conference of Republican Temperance Men.

ALBANY, April 24.—A conference of representative temperance Republicans from various sections of the state, assembled by private invitation to compare views in reference to political action in the coming campaign, has been held in this city during the past week. The sessions were secret, but it is understood that among other things it was resolved by a unanimous vote, to inaugurate measures to concentrate the strong temperance sentiment of the state ag'st the re-nomination of Governor Dix in consequence of his veto last year of the local prohibition bill.—This was deemed necessary in order to prevent so large an increase in the vote of the prohibition party as to give the state hopelessly to the Democracy.

LABOR DIFFICULTIES.

An Outbreak Imminent in St. Johns.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., April 24.—The combination of all the operatives of this city threatens serious results. The operatives organized under the name of "The Mill Men's Protective Union" recently 300 strong visited King & Sons, demanding that they close unless the men employed joined the association. King resisted and the assemblage dispersed. The employers and mill owners are now combined and the situation is daily becoming more alarming. The police have been appealed to and requested to detail a sufficient force to protect the mills. The various combinations of laborers in the city are daily becoming more powerful and the additional expense entailed on ship owners and shippers is very great. Everything indicates that a collision must soon occur.

THE SUFFERING LOUISIANIANS.

Action of President Grant.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Ex-Governor Herbert to-day received a telegram from the Mayor of New Orleans, saying: "Request President Grant to order rations to be issued promptly. The wants of our people are pressing. He who gives quickly gives doubly to the starving people."

President Grant replied as follows:

DEAR GOVERNOR:—Before receiving the resolution of Congress authorizing the issue of assistance to the Louisiana sufferers I directed the Commissary General to send all the rations of flour, meat, rice and beans he could to the people now in distress. In addition to the above the Quartermaster General has orders of the President and has caused to be sent from the depot at Jeffersonville, Indiana, a considerable supply of flannel blouse jackets, shoes, hats, caps, etc., to the sufferers.

THE DISTRESS INCREASING.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—The distress occasioned by the overflow increases. The crevasse at Hickey's is beyond control, being a quarter of a mile wide and ten feet deep.—Almost the entire parish of West Baton Rouge and the whole of the parish of Iberville, lying on the right bank of the Mississippi River, appears to be under water. The government will turn over to the relief committee 500,000 rations of meat, bread, beans and rice.

ST. LOUIS' CONTRIBUTION.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—Two thousand dollars and a large quantity of supplies were contributed on 'Change to-day for the benefit of the sufferers by the southern overflow.

MAILS DELAYED.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—Six days' northern, eastern and western mails are due here. The storm continues, cutting off railroad communication in all directions.

THE ARKANSAS STRIFE.

Parley Between the Two Governors.

LITTLE ROCK, April 24.—Negotiations have been going on between the two hostile parties to the effect that both shall retire all their forces except a body guard until a competent tribunal settles the question as to the Governorship. Brooks holds that Baxter has no power to call the Legislature together. The former is to-day engaged in erecting new barricades and a powerful magazine in the rear of the State House. Some of his troops have gone home. Baxter has stopped sending his men home. Both forces as to numbers are now pretty equally divided. Baxter's are nearly all white men and Brooks' mostly colored.

Baxter to-day sent the following telegram:

TO PRESIDENT GRANT:—In accordance with my correspondence with you by telegraph I have convened the Legislature for the 11th of May. I have sent home part of my forces and would willingly send the balance except a small body guard, but Brooks retains his whole force and receives reinforcements. All the people want is that peace be restored and the Legislature protected in the performance of their legitimate business.

ELISHA BAXTER,
Governor of Arkansas.

Col. Johnson, Secretary of State, has not yet received any reply to his demand for the public buildings of which he is the custodian. Lieut. Cushman, of the 16th Infantry, returned from Memphis this forenoon, authorizes and requests a contradiction of the statement telegraphed from Memphis on Wednesday that he went to Memphis in order to telegraph to the President because of the violent partisan feeling in the telegraph office at Little Rock. He says he made no such statement and his business was wholly disconnected with the telegraph office at this place.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

ALBANY, April 24.

BILLS PASSED.

Regulating the practice of medicine, surgery and midwifery in the state.

Amending the revised statutes in regard to laying out public roads and the alterations thereof.

Making further provision for the payment of further expenses of the local government of New York city.

Mr. FOX moved to recommit to the Committee on Cities, with instructions to strike out the sum of $250,000 and insert in lieu thereof $500,000 for a city parks improvement fund. Lost.

The bill was then passed.

Mr. JACOBS moved that the bill incorporating the New York Bridge Company be recommitted to the Committee on Commerce and Navigation with power to report complete. Carried.

The Assembly returned the bill supplementary to the act incorporating the Gilbert Elevated Railway Company, with a message that they had passed the same with certain amendments.

The amendments were concurred in.

GENERAL ORDERS.

In Committee of the Whole, Mr. KELLOGG in the chair, the following bills were considered:

Subjecting the members of Common Councils of cities and Trustees of villages to personal liability for contracting certain debts.

Progress was reported on the bill.

Authorizing Edward D. Van Slyck to file in the office of the Canal Appraisers a statement of his claims for canal damages, and directing the appraisers to hear and determine the same. Third reading.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Mr. BOOTH, authorizing the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of New York city to take for their use certain lands on Ward's Island.

Authorizing the Commissioners of Emigration to take for their use certain lands on Ward's Island.

Authorizing the Mayor, Aldermen and Commonalty of New York city to take for their use certain lands known as the "Sunken Meadows."

The Senate then went into executive session. Recess until 7:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The Senate in Committee of the Whole considered the following bill:

Authorizing the County Treasurer of Orange County to transfer certain funds to the 19th Battalion. Ordered to a third reading.

ASSEMBLY.

THE SUPPLY BILL.

Mr. BATCHELLER called from the table the amended supply bill. He said he had given the amendments very full examination, and found that the Senate had modified or stricken out nearly every item passed upon by the Assembly. Numerous items had, however, been inserted in the Senate, and he found that, aside from the reduction of the new Capitol appropriation to the extent of $500,000, the aggregate of the bill had been increased fully $150,000. Without passing any criticism upon the action of the Senate, he expressed the opinion that many of the new items inserted were of a doubtful nature, while many of those stricken out were inserted by the Ways and Means Committee after a full and careful investigation of their merits, and they were deemed just and right by the House. Under the circumstances he thought it was impossible that members could act intelligently upon the bill at this time. He, therefore, moved that the House non-concur in the Senate's amendments, and that a Committee of Conference be appointed to act with a like Committee on the part of the Senate.—Agreed to, and the SPEAKER appointed the following Committee: Messrs. BATCHELLER, C. S. SPENCER, ALVORD, WEED and BEEBE.

BILLS PASSED.

Amending Revised Statutes in relation to laying out public roads.

For the relief of Wm. Baxter and others, 88 to 15.

To provide the city of New York with a system of rapid transit for passengers, freight and mails. [The Eastman bill.

Mr. WIGHT moved to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert a substitute which he offered, the committee to report at any time.

[Provides for a commission of five persons, one of whom shall be a civil engineer, to be appointed by the Governor, and all of whom shall be residents in or doing business in New York city. The commissioners are not to locate either of the tracks on Fifth avenue, Broadway or Madison avenue. The bill contemplates two tracks for passengers, baggage and mails, one on the east and one on the west side of the city, and two for freight, one on the east and one on the west side of the city. The commissioners are to meet and organize within ten days after their appointment, and within sixty days adopt a plan of rapid transit, for which a prize of $20,000 shall be offered and paid, after which books of subscription shall be opened, and a corporation shall be formed for the construction and operation of the roads.

Mr. WEED suggested that as the substitute was very long, the subject had better lie over until this evening.

Mr. WIGHT then moved that the whole subject lie on the table until 7 o'clock this evening.

To incorporate the Third avenue Quick Transit Company.

Mr. BATCHELLER moved that the consideration of this bill lie over until the substitute for the Eastman bill be considered. Agreed to.

Authorizing the election of town auditors in the several towns of Delaware and Ulster counties.

To authorize Supervisors to borrow money.

Mr. WEED asked unanimous consent that the bill to consolidate the government of the city and county of New York under one municipal head now have its third reading. He said he should move to amend the bill, but if his proposition was not adopted he should vote for it on its final passage.

Mr. FISH objected.

REPORTS.

Mr. PRINCE, to amend the Revised Statutes.

Mr. VEDDER, adversely, to incorporate the Hirsch Benevolent Association of Kingston. Agreed to.

Mr. MANLEY, to incorporate the New York Cremation Society.

Mr. DENNISTON, to amend the charter of Ulster Female Seminary. Third reading.

Recess to 7 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The House reassembled at 7 P. M.

BILLS PASSED.

To amend the act to amend the charter of Utica and establish a Board of Police and Fire Commissioners in Utica.

Mr. WEED moved to recommit this bill and sent to the desk to be read by the Clerk a remonstrance from citizens of Utica against the bill. The motion to recommit was lost—41 ayes to 65 nays.

Mr. WEED moved to recommit the bill for an amendment submitting the question to the people whether they wanted the change or not.

The amendment was lost and the bill passed.

Providing for the city of New York a system of rapid transit, being the Eastman bill.

Mr. WIGHT moved to recommit the bill with instructions to report the substitute noticed in the morning proceedings.

Mr. ALVORD moved to amend the substitute by providing that the Board of Aldermen, with the approval of the Mayor, shall have all the powers given to the commission'rs and that no surface road shall be constructed or used south of Eighty-fourth street.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 24.

After disposing of a number of bills on the calendar, the Louisiana bill was taken up on the expiration of the morning hour and Merrimon concluded his argument, commenced yesterday.

Mr. EDMUNDS introduced a request bill to provide for a commission upon the subject of postal telegraphy. Referred to the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads.

Mr. WINDOM presented the report of the Committee on Transportation Routes and spoke at great length upon it.

Mr. SHERMAN moved that one thousand extra copies of the report be printed. Referred to the Printing Committee.

Mr. MORRILL of Maine called up the House bill to render available certain balances of unexpended appropriations for the payment of bounty and prize money to colored soldiers and sailors. Passed.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of executive business and after a short time adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

The usual annual discussion over the appropriations for the Agricultural Department occupied several hours and covered the familiar range of subjects, such as the worthlessness or local inappropriations of seeds furnished, supplying to the northwest of such seeds as would grow only in the valley of the lower Mississippi and sending down there of Pennsylvania rye and Berks oats. In the course of the discussion, which was generally of an amusing and discursive character, Wood of Illinois asserted that some of the departments were making use of official postage stamps to circulate the speeches of members and on being pressed for specifications he named the Comptroller of the Currency as one official who had thus circulated the speeches of several members of the Committee on Banking and Currency. He denounced it as favoritism, partiality, wrong and almost as a crime.

Mr. RANDALL of Pennsylvania stated that the subject matter had been informally called to the attention of the Banking Committee. The abuse consisted in the Comptroller of the Currency sending out the speeches of some of the members of the Banking Committee to various banks and persons, but the Comptroller had stated as a justification that the postage was no greater with the speech than it would have been on correspondence without it.

A member—The speech must have been very light. (Laughter).

The committee then, after disposing of fourteen pages of the bill and leaving only six pages undisposed of, rose and the House at 5 o'clock adjourned.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

For the Middle States and lower lake region increasing southeast to northeast winds, cloudy weather and over the former section and possibly over the latter rain.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Three inches of snow on the ground and the fruit trees in full blossom, is not often seen in Georgia, but this is what they saw down there last week.

—At a meeting of Delaware fruit growers the peach crop was estimated at 2,000,000 baskets—an average yield. This is a very low estimate.

—California coroners retire from business early, and always with large fortunes. They do not hesitate to say that the Chinaman is a "sweet boon."

—"And so they go," one of the late Portland school committee is reported to have said; "Our great men are fast departing—first Greeley, then Chase, and now Sumner—and I don't feel very well myself."

—The President of the Argentine Republic has applied to the Secretary of War for permission to have four or six young men of that country educated at West Point at the expense of their government.

—A kind-hearted gentleman sat by the bedside of a wretched, ignorant fellow in a London hospital, to whom he had often spoken before, when he saw the muscles of the poor fellow's face quiver, and at last he drew the sheet over his head and sobbed aloud. The gentleman felt annoyed, and said he hoped he had said or done nothing to pain the invalid, as he only came to comfort him. "Sir," sobbed out the man, "you are the first man that ever spoke a kind word to me since I was born, and I can't stand it."

—An electric light of new invention has been put in the tower of St. Ignatius College, San Francisco. The apparatus cost $5,000, and weighs about as many pounds. It consists of a great number of coils of copper wire revolving close to magnets, in such a way that sparks of electricity are produced in unceasing streams. The currents are concentrated and carried through heavy copper wires to the illuminating point in the tower, where the focus gives a light equal to four hundred gas jets.

—It is said that a firm named Miller & Lux, in the southern part of California, own forty miles of land on the west side of San Joaquin, Miller having in addition half a million acres. He is building fences around his land at the rate of 100 miles per year, and hopes, it is said, at some future day, to have his own land extended from Los Angelos to the Sacramento. He may possibly determine to buy out the whole state, mines and all. This man is evidently a much larger farmer than Jacob Strawn, of Illinois, who died a few years ago, and who had a 40,000 acre farm.

Livingstone—In Memoriam.

The Livingstone memorial meeting, held on Thursday night at the Academy of Music, was well conceived and carried out in good taste. Now that the identical body of the great explorer rests in its well-earned place in Westminster, it is fully competent for us to say how great a man David Livingstone assuredly was. Side by side with him, he rises higher than the antique Marco Polo, who made tropical travel a thing of profit; while he gained nothing but immortality. Men hold this last to be a desirable reward when it completes the catalogue of more tangible benisons coming first—not sooner. Livingstone thought of no reward at all; so he did not miss the least and unconsciously won the greatest. His is one of the names whose relish will improve with time—when his story is more fully known and his motives freed from misinterpretation or suspicion. Whether or not his manuscripts will clearly indicate the true solution to the vexed question of the source of the Nile, there can be no peradventure as to his having unveiled something vastly more important and advantageous, the source of the River of Life—sacrifice and self-renunciation. Like the model Norseman spoken of by Dr. Hayes, he could "ride a horse, bend a bow and speak the truth." All around his worn and wearied clay in the sombre old church by the Thames, lie the bones of plenty of people who were not skillful at either. Above all other deeds and accomplishments the highest good any man can do for his race is to help redeem our faith in human nature and in God—Livingstone did this and therefore takes no strange honor from sleeping in the crypts of kings.

The Veto as a Political Measure.

It seems hardly possible that the veto will be without some positive effect on political parties. It depends of course very much upon the action of prominent inflation men. If Morton, Logan and other leading Republicans with inflation sentiments ground their arms at once and make a complete surrender, there will be no particular change in the two parties; inflation being made, like many other important matters, something upon which Republicans will agree to disagree.

But the chances do not seem to favor the quiet submission of these prominent Western gentlemen. They are not of that kind of people, and ordinarily cling very tenaciously to the political course they once choose. Morton as a political leader could hardly give an excuse for continuance in political circles except the difficulty of choosing between burial and cremation, if he confesses himself so soon done for in the inflation matter. Expecting to ride into the presidential nomination on a tidal wave of easy money, he must abandon all hopes of the office if he confesses his political error. A presidential candidate can hardly have estimated the inflation strength sufficiently great to carry him into the White House to be convinced even by a veto.

So we judge we are to have a long and acrimonious debate over the matter, in which the inflation members will express themselves plainly and forcibly, and with more or less of temper. This debate, if it comes as is indicated by the caucus of inflationists, will be detrimental to business, as it will tend to increase the feeling of uncertainty that has so long prevailed. And the more inflationists vent their displeasure and exhibit their anger, the wider will become the breach between them and their parties.

For if there is to be a disruption of parties, we fail to see how it can be confined to one. While a large element of the Republican party has come out flat-footed for inflation, yet the larger and more influential portion is still more emphatic against violating the solemn pledges of the government and party as well. But while the Republican party is clearly divided, the Democratic is not a unit, and can neither take the field as a hard money or an inflation party. If inflation is an issue to be fought on political platforms, it clearly cannot be settled by the parties at present in the field.

The more probable political move will be an effort on the part of the Republican leaders to slough off the whole inflation crowd, together with the Sanborn and Jayne gang. The Massachusetts senatorial fight demonstrates that Republicans are sensible of the danger the party is in from these people and are determined to clear the party of them or disfranchise them in the party councils. In all the hubbub of plain and somewhat loud speaking just now indulged in by Republican party papers it is difficult to exactly determine how many followers there are to this array of inflation field and staff officers; but we are inclined to believe it is a Falstaffian brigade, with the companies suffering to the largest degree from paper inflation. The chances we think favor the reconstruction of the Republican party as the nucleus around which hard-money men will gather.

Slowly.

Summer comes slowly; all through the damp and dreary woods the spirit of winter lingers still. Now and then in these late April days the sun breaks away from the clouds that lead him captive and flings us a transient smile—bright but not warm—like the smile of a queen going to execution at the hands of a mob. We take off our coats to "make believe" summer has come and instantly put them on again as an unexpended capfull of March wind, tempered on the high hills, strikes our shoulders and whistles around our manly forms. The grass peeps out of the cold ground timidly—like a chicken-hearted committee of investigation—not as though it were sure of a kind reception and intended to stay. The green mould looks greener and more sepulchral than ever on the brown-stone doorsteps of houses with a northern exposure, while the canvas awnings placed untimely over shop and office windows, seem to be begging pardon for hanging out so palpably ahead of business. Feeble old gentlemen with pulmonary complaints order their carriages for a ride in the presumably warm and soothing sunshine, with ebony doubts about the propriety of risking a kick from winter in coaxing a kiss from spring. Not a shimmer of ice is to be seen along the surface of our grand old river, to be sure, but the water has not yet attained that opalescence which arises only from the saturation of its masses with light and heat. Early birds are holding windy, chattering caucusses in the misty mornings and appear, unlike the heavier bipeds, to favor a policy of contraction for the time being. The swift and beautiful passenger boats lie quietly at their docks, patiently accepting the attention of carpenters, painters and decorators and chewing within their mighty furnace-mouths many a reminiscence of seasons gone; of the belles whose light feet trod their spacious decks and gay cavaliers in linen dusters who devotedly followed them 'round—belles and beaux, alas! who will, some of them, hardly come upon the Powell or Vibbard again; for they know not of the panoramic changes of the year, any more. "But," thinks the graceful steamer within her iron brain, "others just as fair and chivalrous will come in the vacant places, and manhood with tones as deep and girlhood with laughter as sweet will make the same remarks about the scenery and eat ice-cream in shaded nooks just the same as did the unreturning brave and fair in summer days before."

The soft gales and "modest violets blue" linger, as we said; yet our faith in the coming of both is perfect. Nothing is so inexorable and nothing is so kind as law; it takes away and our hearts are broken; it gives, and how complete is the healing in its wings! A few weeks, and cold, snow, mud and bitter, biting winds will be forgotten of childhood and be come only the latest tradition of moody and crooning age; for we shall have in our hands and before our eyes the moist, fresh glory of May—which is a sort of first-fruits of the resurrection from the dead. Summer will come and then—but why anticipate the troubles and nuisances which it will bring along in the shape of extra baggage? enough to endure them when we must. John Paul will begin again to write letters to the Tribune from Saratoga—fools of high and of low degree will begin to rush around the world in the "pursuit of happiness," the right of which was declared by the late Thomas Jefferson to be inalienable from beings of that description—young and inquiring pigs will "inaugurate" a radical administration in the interest of the autumnal pork trade—indiscreet mothers will permit their poorly-balanced offspring to disport themselves by the mouths of open cisterns and well-holes, while the passing undertaker sees and gives no sign—the pensive canaler will enchant the air with his songs of love and passion in the still nights, erewhile his sympathetic mules relax their pace and submit their expansive ears to the gentle titillation of the sighing accordeon—the—but, hold; for a much better thing on this same theme see editorial of our dear brother of the Ellenville Journal.

—There is an awful time ahead for England. The Czar is going to visit it, with Gortschakoff, Schouvaloff, and a lot more with names of similar termination.

—The Herald retains its characteristic stability of opinion. A few months ago it was howling about Cæsarism, and now it nominates Grant for a third term.

—Richardson's arduous duties have been too much for him, and he is going to travel for his health. That Sanborn contract ought to make any one sick.

—The good sense of the President's veto was so great that it met with a reception seldom extended to such measures. In Rochester a salute of 100 guns was fired.

—It is better to kill a man than to steal a lot of kid gloves. Stokes got four years, and Conklin, the dishonest clerk of Harris Brothers, has been sentenced to four years and six months in prison.

—The leaving of the appointment of the new Capitol Superintendent to Governor Dix is pretty generally considered a wise action. The old Governor isn't likely to appoint a dishonest official.

—The enterprising Washington correspondents were all fooled by the veto. They were unanimous in predicting that the President would sign the bill, and the surest prophecies of this kind came only the day before it was vetoed.

—Here's our old friend, Stanley Matthews of Ohio, who is on the rampage for a new party. It will be a very reckless party that answers Matthews' call. He presided at Cincinnati, but slid out of the new party before the convention adjourned.

—Our readers will doubtless remember an individual who once figured in the United States Senate, but who recently retired from public life, having earned a somewhat equivocal reputation and the soubriquet of "Old Subsidy Pom." Well, he has turned up again—his trial for bribery comes off in May.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

—The survey of the bed of the Pacific Ocean for a cable from America to Asia is progressing favorably. One result of this practical survey has been to substantiate the even surface and depth of the Pacific waters, as they have been theoretically asserted to be by philosophers who have measured the tidal waves between the two continents.

—A school teacher in DeWitt county, Ill., has introduced a new method of punishment into his school. When one of the girls misses a word the lad who spells it has permission to kiss her. The Clinton Public says: "The result is that the girls are fast forgetting all they ever knew about spelling, while the boys are improving with wonderful rapidity."

—Governor William B. Washburne, the new Senator for Massachusetts, is not related to the celebrated Washburne family of which Governor Israel Washburne, Governor C. C. Washburne and E. R. Washburne are members. The new Senator comes from the western part of Massachusetts, and is in no way connected with the others.

—Many of the western states have made haste to mortgage themselves for the benefit of railroad speculations, only to repent at leisure. Minnesota now has a difficult case of this kind on its hands. This state gave a company fourteen full sections of land to the mile of the branch road from St. Paul to Winona, and the company now claims that 75,000 acres of this is occupied by state institutions, and brings suit for its possession.

—A. C. Younglove, Esq., of Vine Valley, (Middlesex), a sort of fruit prophet, writes to the Rochester Union that "Our prospects for a full crop of all varieties of fruit have seldom been more flattering at this season of the year. Grapes, especially, are in fine condition. Peaches are in fair condition—more than enough buds still sound to give us all the trees can mature. Strawberries, notwithstanding the hard, open winter, have come through all sound and in good condition."

—The gossips, who are ever busy with Nilsson's name and movements, have now discovered that she has fallen desperately in love with a pretty American girl; the latter exercising the same fascination over the Swede that she has exercised over other young women. The story is that she went from the Clarendon to the Windsor in order to be near her enslaver, whom she visits daily when in the city, and whom she really worships. The prima donna thinks if she were a man that she would certainly marry the girl, and declares that leaving the latter will be her greatest grief in crossing the Atlantic. She has tried, it is said, to persuade our fair countrywoman to go abroad and live with her; but as the papa objects to this the feminine lovers are destined to be separated. Nilsson promises to return ere long, and at present meditates making her future home in Manhattan—all because of her devotion to her new inamorata.—New York Letter.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Proceedings in Parliament—A Breeze in Commons.

LONDON, April 24.—In the House of Lords to-day the Marquis of Salisbury, Secretary of State for India, said the next harvest in India promised to be abundant and the present provision against famine was undoubtedly ample.

In the House of Commons Mr. Smollet moved that the suddenness of the late dissolution of Parliament is deserving of the censure of the House. He characterized the act as a coup d' etat by which the last government sought unconstitutionally to retain power. He declared that Mr. Gladstone had resorted to a stratagem which was ungenerous to his friends, insolent to his opponents and barely honest to the nation.

Mr. Whalley seconded the motion.

Mr. Gladstone stigmatized the assertion that the dissolution was secretly planned as untrue, absurd and impossible. He challenged a repetition of the word trickster, which had been applied to him, and upon the refusal of Mr. Smollet to repeat it he charged him with lack of decency and manliness. He defended the act of dissolution, which he declared would have been more inconvenient, had it been postponed. On concluding his speech Mr. Gladstone left the House.

The motion was negatived without a division. Much excitement was manifested during and at the close of the debate.

The last parliamentary election, in Wakefield, has been annulled on account of bribery.

THE CASE OF L'AMERIQUE.

LONDON, April 25—5:30 A. M.—The Daily News correspondent at Plymouth reports that the French steamship L'Amerique, having been freed from water, has been examined. The hull was found to be tight, but the valves were open. Her crew have been telegraphed for and she will proceed to Havre on Monday. The Admiralty Court have fixed the bail at $125,000.

COUNTERFEITERS ARRESTED.

Seizure of Counterfeit Coin.

ERIE, Pa., April 24.—Government detectives to-day arrested John Earll and John Eaton and wife in Bloomfield, Crawford county, Pa., on a charge of counterfeiting. The detectives captured a half bushel of counterfeit five cent nickel coin and a lot of dies, &c. The prisoners were lodged in the Erie jail.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

Gen. Howard's Investigation.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—In the Howard court of inquiry the government rested its case to-day, closing with the examination of Assistant Adjutant General Vincent. General Howard commences with his defence on Monday and expects to occupy a week.

RAILROAD STRIKE.

Movement of Trains Impeded.

CINCINNATI, April 24.—The strike of section hands and bridge men on the Louisville Short Line Railroad still continues. Freight trains are not moving on the road. A morning train will be sent out to-morrow. The water tanks have been tapped all along the line and some of them burned. The strikers refuse to work or to let others work and are reported as saying they mean to hurt nobody, but will persist until their terms are acceded to. It is difficult to obtain full and perfectly reliable news of the matter.

FALL OF A HOUSE.

Two Men Killed.

NEW YORK, April 24.—A three-story frame dwelling house on Stockton street, between Marcy and Tompkins avenues, Brooklyn, fell with a fearful crash at about nine o'clock this morning, burying, it is reported, seven or eight mechanics in the ruins. It appears that the house had been raised a story and was supported by insufficient underpinning, which gave way. Two men were killed outright—Osborn, the boss builder, and Burns, the boss plumber. Two were fatally injured and five seriously hurt. A boy employed in the building at the time is missing and it is believed his body is buried in the ruins.

METROPOLITAN NEWS.

The British Lion.

NEW YORK, April 24.—The resolutions of the Common Council tendering to Sir Lambton Lorraine the hospitality and freedom of the city were presented to him this afternoon in the Governor's room of the City Hall by Mayor Havemeyer, to which Sir Lambton made a brief reply to the members of the Common Council, Boards of Aldermen and assistant aldermen and city officials present, whom he bade au revoir when taking his departure.

INVESTIGATING THE OLD WHISKEY RING.

The Congressional Committee of Ways and Means have resolved to investigate the facts connected with the old whiskey ring in this city and have subpœnaed Deputy Clerk Stillwell of the Circuit Court and Major Sidney DeKay, Private Secretary of Gov. Dix, who was United States District Attorney in 1872, to appear before the committee for examination. About two years ago Simon Herman and a number of distillers, rectifiers, Internal Revenue officers and others were indicted in the United States Circuit Court of this district, but none of the indicted parties have been brought to trial, and in Herman's case a nolle prosequi was entered. The prosecution claim that this was done on the payment by Herman of $3,000, $2,000 of which went to a man named Fay, $490 to Sanborn, $490 to the government and $20 to District Attorney Davis. It is stated that it will be shown Sanborn was not entitled to any money, as the prosecution against Herman was begun before the government contract was made with Sanborn.

THE JAY GOULD SUIT.

Jay Gould's counsel asserts that no papers have been served on Gould or himself in the alleged $10,000,000 suit.

THE CREMATIONISTS.

The adjourned meeting of the Cremation Society was held this afternoon. The Committee on Law reported that there was nothing in either the civil or criminal law to make the practice of cremation illegal. Brief addresses on the subject were delivered by Professor Barnard, Rev. Dr. Frothingham and others.

SPRING FRESHETS.

Great Flood in Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 24.—The rains all over the state for the last ten days have raised the water courses, overflowing them for the third time in the last six weeks. The Alabama River has flooded all the lowlands and is still rising. The rain continues to fall heavily. Farming operations are greatly retarded and it is feared much lowland will have to be abandoned. Railroads east of this point are uninjured, but between this city and Mobile and between Selma and Meridian communication is temporarily suspended.

THE TEMPERANCE QUESTION.

Conference of Republican Temperance Men.

ALBANY, April 24.—A conference of representative temperance Republicans from various sections of the state, assembled by private invitation to compare views in reference to political action in the coming campaign, has been held in this city during the past week. The sessions were secret, but it is understood that among other things it was resolved by a unanimous vote, to inaugurate measures to concentrate the strong temperance sentiment of the state ag'st the re-nomination of Governor Dix in consequence of his veto last year of the local prohibition bill.—This was deemed necessary in order to prevent so large an increase in the vote of the prohibition party as to give the state hopelessly to the Democracy.

LABOR DIFFICULTIES.

An Outbreak Imminent in St. Johns.

ST. JOHNS, N. B., April 24.—The combination of all the operatives of this city threatens serious results. The operatives organized under the name of "The Mill Men's Protective Union" recently 300 strong visited King & Sons, demanding that they close unless the men employed joined the association. King resisted and the assemblage dispersed. The employers and mill owners are now combined and the situation is daily becoming more alarming. The police have been appealed to and requested to detail a sufficient force to protect the mills. The various combinations of laborers in the city are daily becoming more powerful and the additional expense entailed on ship owners and shippers is very great. Everything indicates that a collision must soon occur.

THE SUFFERING LOUISIANIANS.

Action of President Grant.

WASHINGTON, April 24.—Ex-Governor Herbert to-day received a telegram from the Mayor of New Orleans, saying: "Request President Grant to order rations to be issued promptly. The wants of our people are pressing. He who gives quickly gives doubly to the starving people."

President Grant replied as follows:

DEAR GOVERNOR:—Before receiving the resolution of Congress authorizing the issue of assistance to the Louisiana sufferers I directed the Commissary General to send all the rations of flour, meat, rice and beans he could to the people now in distress. In addition to the above the Quartermaster General has orders of the President and has caused to be sent from the depot at Jeffersonville, Indiana, a considerable supply of flannel blouse jackets, shoes, hats, caps, etc., to the sufferers.

THE DISTRESS INCREASING.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—The distress occasioned by the overflow increases. The crevasse at Hickey's is beyond control, being a quarter of a mile wide and ten feet deep.—Almost the entire parish of West Baton Rouge and the whole of the parish of Iberville, lying on the right bank of the Mississippi River, appears to be under water. The government will turn over to the relief committee 500,000 rations of meat, bread, beans and rice.

ST. LOUIS' CONTRIBUTION.

ST. LOUIS, April 24.—Two thousand dollars and a large quantity of supplies were contributed on 'Change to-day for the benefit of the sufferers by the southern overflow.

MAILS DELAYED.

NEW ORLEANS, April 24.—Six days' northern, eastern and western mails are due here. The storm continues, cutting off railroad communication in all directions.

THE ARKANSAS STRIFE.

Parley Between the Two Governors.

LITTLE ROCK, April 24.—Negotiations have been going on between the two hostile parties to the effect that both shall retire all their forces except a body guard until a competent tribunal settles the question as to the Governorship. Brooks holds that Baxter has no power to call the Legislature together. The former is to-day engaged in erecting new barricades and a powerful magazine in the rear of the State House. Some of his troops have gone home. Baxter has stopped sending his men home. Both forces as to numbers are now pretty equally divided. Baxter's are nearly all white men and Brooks' mostly colored.

Baxter to-day sent the following telegram:

TO PRESIDENT GRANT:—In accordance with my correspondence with you by telegraph I have convened the Legislature for the 11th of May. I have sent home part of my forces and would willingly send the balance except a small body guard, but Brooks retains his whole force and receives reinforcements. All the people want is that peace be restored and the Legislature protected in the performance of their legitimate business.

ELISHA BAXTER,
Governor of Arkansas.

Col. Johnson, Secretary of State, has not yet received any reply to his demand for the public buildings of which he is the custodian. Lieut. Cushman, of the 16th Infantry, returned from Memphis this forenoon, authorizes and requests a contradiction of the statement telegraphed from Memphis on Wednesday that he went to Memphis in order to telegraph to the President because of the violent partisan feeling in the telegraph office at Little Rock. He says he made no such statement and his business was wholly disconnected with the telegraph office at this place.

Authorizing the County Treasurer of Orange County to transfer certain funds to the 19th Battalion. Ordered to a third reading.

ASSEMBLY.

THE SUPPLY BILL.

Mr. BATCHELLER called from the table the amended supply bill. He said he had given the amendments very full examination, and found that the Senate had modified or stricken out nearly every item passed upon by the Assembly. Numerous items had, however, been inserted in the Senate, and he found that, aside from the reduction of the new Capitol appropriation to the extent of $500,000, the aggregate of the bill had been increased fully $150,000. Without passing any criticism upon the action of the Senate, he expressed the opinion that many of the new items inserted were of a doubtful nature, while many of those stricken out were inserted by the Ways and Means Committee after a full and careful investigation of their merits, and they were deemed just and right by the House. Under the circumstances he thought it was impossible that members could act intelligently upon the bill at this time. He, therefore, moved that the House non-concur in the Senate's amendments, and that a Committee of Conference be appointed to act with a like Committee on the part of the Senate.—Agreed to, and the SPEAKER appointed the following Committee: Messrs. BATCHELLER, C. S. SPENCER, ALVORD, WEED and BEEBE.

BILLS PASSED.

Amending Revised Statutes in relation to laying out public roads.

For the relief of Wm. Baxter and others, 88 to 15.

To provide the city of New York with a system of rapid transit for passengers, freight and mails. [The Eastman bill.

Mr. WIGHT moved to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert a substitute which he offered, the committee to report at any time.

[Provides for a commission of five persons, one of whom shall be a civil engineer, to be appointed by the Governor, and all of whom shall be residents in or doing business in New York city. The commissioners are not to locate either of the tracks on Fifth avenue, Broadway or Madison avenue. The bill contemplates two tracks for passengers, baggage and mails, one on the east and one on the west side of the city, and two for freight, one on the east and one on the west side of the city. The commissioners are to meet and organize within ten days after their appointment, and within sixty days adopt a plan of rapid transit, for which a prize of $20,000 shall be offered and paid, after which books of subscription shall be opened, and a corporation shall be formed for the construction and operation of the roads.

Mr. WEED suggested that as the substitute was very long, the subject had better lie over until this evening.

Mr. WIGHT then moved that the whole subject lie on the table until 7 o'clock this evening.

To incorporate the Third avenue Quick Transit Company.

Mr. BATCHELLER moved that the consideration of this bill lie over until the substitute for the Eastman bill be considered. Agreed to.

Authorizing the election of town auditors in the several towns of Delaware and Ulster counties.

To authorize Supervisors to borrow money.

Mr. WEED asked unanimous consent that the bill to consolidate the government of the city and county of New York under one municipal head now have its third reading. He said he should move to amend the bill, but if his proposition was not adopted he should vote for it on its final passage.

Mr. FISH objected.

Mr. WEED moved to recommit the bill for an amendment submitting the question to the people whether they wanted the change or not.

The amendment was lost and the bill passed.

Providing for the city of New York a system of rapid transit, being the Eastman bill.

Mr. WIGHT moved to recommit the bill with instructions to report the substitute noticed in the morning proceedings.

Mr. ALVORD moved to amend the substitute by providing that the Board of Aldermen, with the approval of the Mayor, shall have all the powers given to the commission'rs and that no surface road shall be constructed or used south of Eighty-fourth street.

UNITED STATES CONGRESS.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, April 24.

After disposing of a number of bills on the calendar, the Louisiana bill was taken up on the expiration of the morning hour and Merrimon concluded his argument, commenced yesterday.

Mr. EDMUNDS introduced a request bill to provide for a commission upon the subject of postal telegraphy. Referred to the Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads.

Mr. WINDOM presented the report of the Committee on Transportation Routes and spoke at great length upon it.

Mr. SHERMAN moved that one thousand extra copies of the report be printed. Referred to the Printing Committee.

Mr. MORRILL of Maine called up the House bill to render available certain balances of unexpended appropriations for the payment of bounty and prize money to colored soldiers and sailors. Passed.

The Senate then proceeded to the consideration of executive business and after a short time adjourned until Monday.

HOUSE.

The usual annual discussion over the appropriations for the Agricultural Department occupied several hours and covered the familiar range of subjects, such as the worthlessness or local inappropriations of seeds furnished, supplying to the northwest of such seeds as would grow only in the valley of the lower Mississippi and sending down there of Pennsylvania rye and Berks oats. In the course of the discussion, which was generally of an amusing and discursive character, Wood of Illinois asserted that some of the departments were making use of official postage stamps to circulate the speeches of members and on being pressed for specifications he named the Comptroller of the Currency as one official who had thus circulated the speeches of several members of the Committee on Banking and Currency. He denounced it as favoritism, partiality, wrong and almost as a crime.

Mr. RANDALL of Pennsylvania stated that the subject matter had been informally called to the attention of the Banking Committee. The abuse consisted in the Comptroller of the Currency sending out the speeches of some of the members of the Banking Committee to various banks and persons, but the Comptroller had stated as a justification that the postage was no greater with the speech than it would have been on correspondence without it.

A member—The speech must have been very light. (Laughter).

The committee then, after disposing of fourteen pages of the bill and leaving only six pages undisposed of, rose and the House at 5 o'clock adjourned.

THE WEATHER.

To-Day's Probabilities.

For the Middle States and lower lake region increasing southeast to northeast winds, cloudy weather and over the former section and possibly over the latter rain.

GENERAL NEWS.

—Three inches of snow on the ground and the fruit trees in full blossom, is not often seen in Georgia, but this is what they saw down there last week.

—At a meeting of Delaware fruit growers the peach crop was estimated at 2,000,000 baskets—an average yield. This is a very low estimate.

—California coroners retire from business early, and always with large fortunes. They do not hesitate to say that the Chinaman is a "sweet boon."

—"And so they go," one of the late Portland school committee is reported to have said; "Our great men are fast departing—first Greeley, then Chase, and now Sumner—and I don't feel very well myself."

—The President of the Argentine Republic has applied to the Secretary of War for permission to have four or six young men of that country educated at West Point at the expense of their government.

—A kind-hearted gentleman sat by the bedside of a wretched, ignorant fellow in a London hospital, to whom he had often spoken before, when he saw the muscles of the poor fellow's face quiver, and at last he drew the sheet over his head and sobbed aloud. The gentleman felt annoyed, and said he hoped he had said or done nothing to pain the invalid, as he only came to comfort him. "Sir," sobbed out the man, "you are the first man that ever spoke a kind word to me since I was born, and I can't stand it."

—An electric light of new invention has been put in the tower of St. Ignatius College, San Francisco. The apparatus cost $5,000, and weighs about as many pounds. It consists of a great number of coils of copper wire revolving close to magnets, in such a way that sparks of electricity are produced in unceasing streams. The currents are concentrated and carried through heavy copper wires to the illuminating point in the tower, where the focus gives a light equal to four hundred gas jets.

—It is said that a firm named Miller & Lux, in the southern part of California, own forty miles of land on the west side of San Joaquin, Miller having in addition half a million acres. He is building fences around his land at the rate of 100 miles per year, and hopes, it is said, at some future day, to have his own land extended from Los Angelos to the Sacramento. He may possibly determine to buy out the whole state, mines and all. This man is evidently a much larger farmer than Jacob Strawn, of Illinois, who died a few years ago, and who had a 40,000 acre farm.

CITY NOTES.

—The Street Superintendent is going for those who throw ashes in the streets.

—Supervisor Mellon drives the most complete storm buggy owned in the city.

—John T. Merritt has been laying a new stone walk in front of his saloon uptown.

—Burgevine thinks he can't be beaten on lettuce. That's just what we think.

—The President's veto was received with general favor in this city.

—John McEntee, the foundryman, has taken to driving a stylish nag.

—Hon. Thomas Cornell has presented his daughter with a handsome horse and phaeton.

—The new uptown savings bank will do business in the State of New York Bank rooms.

—The freshet in the river and the roiliness of the water interferes with shad fishing.

—The San Francisco Minstrels are booked for a performance at Washington Hall on May 19th.

—The Opera House under the new management is, we understand, to be a great improvement on the old.

—Shad are not really plenty yet in the markets, but those that are brought in are very large.

—Yesterday 50 canal boats laden with 6,344 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—The Wiltwyck Mission Scoool flourishes. It has already reached an average attendance of 87.

—Two grain merchants of this city—Abbey and Tremper—are members of the New York Board of Trade.

—Many of the property-owners on Garden street are signing the petition to have that thoroughfare paved.

—The City Hall is beginning to look up, so that the people can see the handsome brick walls when riding past in the cars.

—The Mansion House billiard room is now in complete order and looks as nice as a new ten cent stamp.

—James M. Van Wagonen, attorney at law, has removed from his late office on John street to a new one in Wood's building on Wall street.

—Mart. Hauver is busy moving from the hotel to his new quarters on Manor avenue. Mr. Brown will take formal possession on the 1st of May.

—A new dodge in advertising is the billing of this city for the oratorio of Elijah to be given at the Opera House in Poughkeepsie by Theodore Thomas' orchestra.

—John Weber, the butcher, received a yoke of beef cattle from Dutchess county on Friday afternoon, one of which weighed 2,025 pounds.

—For quiet elegance that new landaulet of Gil. Smith's is on a par with anything in the city. But bless us, how these liverymen are branching out!

—The property of T. Rafferty advertised in The Freeman was sold at Referee's sale at the Mansion House on Friday by C. M. Preston. The purchaser was Wm. Gokey.

—Mr. Andrew Low and wife, who have taken up their residence in the Vandling house on Abruyn street, were housewarmed by a surprise party on Wednesday evening.

—A young lawyer uptown claims that he walked from the Mansion House to the Court House on Wall street on Friday in just twenty minutes. He's almost equal to that horse the other lawyer owns.

—A wagon having on a large stone for the City Hall got stuck on the horse railroad track near O'Reilly's grove on Friday afternoon, compelling passengers by the street cars to change cars at that point.

—The Young Men's Dramatic Club of this city will give an entertainment Wednesday and Thursday evenings next at Washington Hall. The particulars will be fully advertised in The Freeman next week.

—Walker & Dubois have turned out their first buggy wagon this spring, and a very handsome one it is. E. Lewis uptown is the owner, and with his handsome black shows as fine a rig as can be seen in that part of the city.

—The Georgia Minstrel performance in Music Hall on Thursday night was not largely attended, but was very good. A hit was made by the stump speaker on Artemas Sahler that brought down the house with shouts of applause.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church entertained their friends at the boarding-house of Mrs. Wm. Townsend, corner North Front street and Clinton avenue, where the pastor, Rev. James O. Denniston, resides, on Wednesday evening, the 22d inst. The congregations of the First Dutch and Episcopal Churches were well represented. The social netted $47.

—Complaints are made to us that some of the post office attaches of talking freely about letters and postal cards passing through their hands, telling outsiders from whom they come and to whom they are sent, and repeating the contents of postal cards. We don't know how well founded this charge is, but the mail employees would do well to be extremely cautious on these points.

Spirits at a Prominent Hotel Uptown.

An old lady over sixty years of age, and who is possessed of a most vivid imagination, while sleeping at one of the prominent hotels uptown a few nights ago, heard a noise at her chamber door, and immediately commenced to scream that a man was trying to get in her room. She took down her bed and examined the floor minutely, besides pounding every board with a huge club to see if there wasn't a trap-door somewhere in the room large enough for a man to crawl through. Every little while there would be a mysterious rattle of the door-knob, when the lady would commence to bowl in a frightful manner, now and then varying the performance by throwing small but weighty articles of furniture through the ventilator over the door. This spiritual manifestation continued for over an hour, and as it was near midnight the boarders on that floor were awakened and almost frightened out of their senses, supposing at least a murder was being committed. At last the rattling of the knob ceased, and it is hoped the lady slept in peace until morning; at any rate nothing farther was heard of the man. We are sorry the good woman made so much noise, as without doubt if the spirits had not been driven away, there would have been made some startling revelations.

Look Out for Your Certificates.

Marriage certificates now-a-days must be filed with the County Clerk, according to a late statute law, and the dominies pretty generally are sending in their certificates, so that any persons intending to change their single state can see how this thing is finished by calling at the office. One of these certificates came in a few days ago and the main portion read as follows: "I hereby certify that the above-named were legally joint by me in accordance with the law of Moses and Israel."

Named by Chance.

A lady from Orange county was obliged to leave an Erie train at Owego, on Thursday last, on account of sudden illness. At the Ahwaga House a child was born. The lady boarders and others finding that the mother had but little money, charged a fee for seeing the child, and received quite a sum in that way. On Saturday evening, the gentlemen in the office threw dice, at twenty-five cents a throw, for the privilege of naming the little one. A gentleman from New York won the chance and crushed the infant by naming him Orrin Truman Bannister Van Valkenburgh.—The lady was on her way to Rathbonville.—Newburgh Journal.

Personal.

Reuben Bernard and his daughter Minnie started Thursday evening for Kansas City. They will be absent on their western tour about two months.

We have received a copy of the Rock Island, Ill., Daily Union, giving an account of a large temperance meeting on the 16th inst., of which Mr. David F. More, formerly of this city, was Secretary.

Our readers have doubtless noted and wondered at the non-appearance of "Cyrus'" letters from Albany of late, and they will regret to learn of his severe illness, which has prevented him from attending to his journalistic duties. He is recovering, however, and we hope to present several of his spicy epistles before the Legislature adjourns.

James O. Merritt and lady have returned home to this city from their tour in the south.

One of our uptown men called on Charlie Ackert the other day and found him stewing at a fearful rate about the scarcity of items.

Rats.

The store of Crosby, Lawrence & Co., on Wall street, must be a sort of headquarters for rats, if our latest advices are true. A day or two ago a small dog was in the store and commenced to bark and paw as if possessed of an infernal spirit. A search was made and three large rats were found in a drawer in the counter. How they got in no one could tell, as the drawer was almost air-tight. Since that time a number of rats have been shot in the rear of the building, and the bosses are about making up their minds to arm their clerks with the latest style of Remington breech-loading rifle so as to exterminate the pests. As it is one of these chaps are kept on the lookout for stray rats, and when one is sighted, the cry of "rats" has about the same effect on the employees, as the cry of "donkeys" did in stimulating Janet, the light-footed waiting-maid of Dickens' famous Betsey Trotwood.

The Butter Business in Andes.

We are informed by Henry Dowie that Messrs. MacBride & Williams of 333 Greenwich street, New York, who two years since introduced the pail butter business in this county, have now three thousand four hundred and thirty-three cows under contract this season, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one of which are in the town of Andes. The weekly delivery in the village of Andes represents the make of two thousand two hundred and seventy-nine cows, and thus far each delivery day has added to their number. This butter is delivered in New York semi-weekly during the summer season, and the certainty of obtaining it in any quantity, precisely what is wanted, has given MacBride & Williams a large proportion of the best grocer trade of New York city. To what extent this centralization of the butter interests of this section at our village benefits and enlivens it is not hard to determine. It is the main-spring of our business machinery.—Andes Recorder.

Suicide at Summitville.

On Wednesday morning, the 22d, the dead body of a woman named Mrs. Reynolds, who resided at Summitville, Sullivan county, was found in a pond near her residence. Her little child was in her arms, and both had died together. In the house pinned to the table-spread was the following letter written by deceased:

"Dear Friend:—Do not weep for me. I am weary of life—I can not say to live, but to die is gain. Bury the babe in my arms. I can say that I love everybody. I have a good and kind husband. I feel weak and feeble in body and mind. My prayer is that we may all meet again.

Dear husband, take good care of Hattie. You will find my body in the swamp pond.

Farewell to all."

It is supposed the lady lived very happily with her husband, and the cause of the suicide is unknown. She leaves a little girl by the name of Hattie, whom she kissed in the morning and asked if she didn't want to go with her and be drowned also. At the time of the commission of the suicide the husband of the lady was at work in Ellenville.

The Late Circuit Court.

A laborious session of the court is ended, and there isn't a doubt but that everybody in attendance gave a sigh of relief when it had finished. There is a great deal of wear and tear of mind, conscience and pocketbooks, during a session of court, to say nothing about the little annoyances that come like flea bites to worry everybody who is forced to dance attendance to the call of justice and drink from her fount of legal learning. During the nine days' session, however, a large amount of work was done and a large number of cases disposed of. Judge Boardman was a quiet sort of Judge, but he decided firmly when he did decide, and immediately shut off all debate, thus saving much valuable time without being at all unfair or tyrannical in the exercise of his judicial power. Of the 303 cases on the calendar at the opening of the session 73 have been disposed of, besides a large amount of Special Term business. The greater portion of the cases tried were probably not of a kind that would give a stranger an encouraging feeling in regard to our county, but they are exceptions—not the general rule.

Concerning Ladies in the Assembly Chamber.

Yesterday morning Speaker Husted called the attention of the House to the fact that some of the younger members of that body were in the habit of writing notes to ladies who came to watch the proceedings of the legislative body, and that his attention had been called to a case where two ladies had been insulted by these epistles. He marveled much that any member of the House could be guilty of such ungentlemanly conduct, and he warned the page boys that if any of them acted as carriers of anonymous notes to ladies in the rear of the chamber he would immediately discharge them. It is to be hoped that this prompt and commendable action of the Speaker will put an end to the contemptible actions of one or two members who manage to bring into ill-repute the good name of the House. Wednesday evening two ladies were sitting on one of the sofas when a page boy brought them a note from a member, which read as follows:

Will you not very much favor us with your company and meet us at the end of the session, in order to have a glass of wine together at Congress Hall or elsewhere.

—— AND FRIEND.

The ladies were very indignant at receiving the note, and immediately tore it up in vexation. When their escort, who was momentarily absent, returned, they informed him of the circumstance, and he, who was husband to one of the ladies, picked up the fragments, pasted them together, and yesterday morning called upon the Speaker, who was much annoyed at the transaction, particularly as it was not an exceptional case, but of common occurrence. He, therefore, very promptly made the matter public from the chair, and we can now expect that an affair of the kind will not again occur. It is but proper to say that the member whose name was attached to the note denied having written it, and says he would not be capable of such an act. We therefore omit his name.—Albany Express.

Guy & Leon's Troupe.

In our advertising columns will be found the announcement that the above troupe will exhibit at Washington Hall on Tuesday evening next. The programme is a very attractive one.

Religious Notice.

Rev. J. H. Frazer of Syracuse will preach in the Second Reformed Church on Fair street Sunday, at 10:45 A. M. and 7:30 in the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Our Telegraph Operators.

Newburgh has seven telegraph operators. Kingston can beat that.—Freeman.

Enumerate them.—Newburgh Telegraph.

So you doubt us, do you, Goodrich? Well, giving a hasty thought to the matter we can count up sixteen operators and name every one of them, and there may be a dozen or two more we have forgotten or don't know, not to mention the host of youngsters, including some females, learning how. Seven operators! Oh! pshaw!

Handsome Show Window.

The handsomest show windows in the city are those of the store of Dimmick, Burhans & Webster. It is not an unusual sight to see a bevy of handsome girls looking with undisguised admiration at the brilliant-colored shawls and ribbons and the handsome laces. "Dear me!" said a little lady to herself in an undertone the other day, "if I only had that shawl, wouldn't I make his heart ache?" and she carefully counted the contents of her pocketbook, and finally went into the store. We have no doubt but that his heart did ache after that.

Coal Trade.

An arrangement has been consummated between the Delaware & Hudson Canal and Pennsylvania Coal Companies for an equal division of the coal trade along the line of the Erie Railway.

Mrs. O'Reilly's Statement.

We published yesterday what purported to be Mrs. O'Reilly's statement of the alleged attempt at rape. It was brought to the office by young Dolan, and we supposed of course Mrs. O'Reilly's signature was genuine. On Friday afternoon, however, she called at the office, and denied that she had ever signed or ever been asked to sign such a statement. In regard to the facts she states that Dolan used very rough language, but not of an indecent character, and caught hold of her arms, leaving the marks of his fingers upon them, but he made no attempt at rape. She and her children were very much frightened, and the latter cried bitterly.

Attempted Burglary.

On Monday night burglars made an attempt to force an entrance into the residence of Rev. A. F. Olmstead on Montgomery street. They forced open a pair of glass doors entering into the parlor and the noise occasioned by the act awakened the family, who immediately instituted a search for the thieves. But they had fled. The thieves who made this attempt were probably the ones who were seen about here on Sunday and Monday. They wore long Ulster overcoats, belted in at the waist; in passing by one of these characters Mr. Harry Tremper spied a black mask underneath the lappel of the fellow's coat and so informed the authorities, who caused a watch to be set in the village during the night. Look to your doors and windows.—Rhinebeck Gazette.

—The building of several new feeding reservoirs is projected by the Delaware & Hudson Company, to be used in dry weather emergencies, such as have caused suspension of business heretofore. Surveys for a large one have been completed near the head of Lackawaxen Canal above Honesdale. Superintendent Atkinson also recommends the building of a feeder between the Narrows and the mouth of the Lackawaxen, a distance of twelve miles of canal that depends on one source for its supply of water—Middletown Mercury.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

Some persons who are laboring under the impression that they know more about my business than I do myself, are circulating the report that the reputed sale of the Opera House to me is a "blind," and not a bona fide business transaction. I take this method of publicly announcing that the sale is a genuine business operation, and that on Monday of next week I take possession of the Rondout Opera House as its sole proprietor.

East Kingston's New Name.

Editor Freeman:—Your correspondent Rex, in yesterday's issue, proposes some other better and more euphonious name in the place of East Kingston, and suggests South Flatbush. Don't do it, Rex! We are too well supplied with bushes already. We have Pine Bush, Flatbush, Cripple Bush, besides about a dozen darkies by the name of Bush, several of which have been on a visit to Albany to settle up the affairs of a little poultry episode. No, don't give us anything in the Bush line; but rather something that indicates its location. How would Riverside or Rivermouth, or Westover or Riverbank do? There is every assurance that the place is not only rapidly growing, but that in a few years it will be one of considerable commercial importance, and that soon residences both costly and rare will here adorn the banks of the river. Therefore we say, give us a pleasing name rather than one that smacks of western pioneering.

CITY NOTES.

—The Street Superintendent is going for those who throw ashes in the streets.

—Supervisor Mellon drives the most complete storm buggy owned in the city.

—John T. Merritt has been laying a new stone walk in front of his saloon uptown.

—Burgevine thinks he can't be beaten on lettuce. That's just what we think.

—The President's veto was received with general favor in this city.

—John McEntee, the foundryman, has taken to driving a stylish nag.

—Hon. Thomas Cornell has presented his daughter with a handsome horse and phaeton.

—The new uptown savings bank will do business in the State of New York Bank rooms.

—The freshet in the river and the roiliness of the water interferes with shad fishing.

—The San Francisco Minstrels are booked for a performance at Washington Hall on May 19th.

—The Opera House under the new management is, we understand, to be a great improvement on the old.

—Shad are not really plenty yet in the markets, but those that are brought in are very large.

—Yesterday 50 canal boats laden with 6,344 tons of coal reached tide water through the Delaware & Hudson Canal.

—The Wiltwyck Mission Scoool flourishes. It has already reached an average attendance of 87.

—Two grain merchants of this city—Abbey and Tremper—are members of the New York Board of Trade.

—Many of the property-owners on Garden street are signing the petition to have that thoroughfare paved.

—The City Hall is beginning to look up, so that the people can see the handsome brick walls when riding past in the cars.

—The Mansion House billiard room is now in complete order and looks as nice as a new ten cent stamp.

—James M. Van Wagonen, attorney at law, has removed from his late office on John street to a new one in Wood's building on Wall street.

—Mart. Hauver is busy moving from the hotel to his new quarters on Manor avenue. Mr. Brown will take formal possession on the 1st of May.

—A new dodge in advertising is the billing of this city for the oratorio of Elijah to be given at the Opera House in Poughkeepsie by Theodore Thomas' orchestra.

—John Weber, the butcher, received a yoke of beef cattle from Dutchess county on Friday afternoon, one of which weighed 2,025 pounds.

—For quiet elegance that new landaulet of Gil. Smith's is on a par with anything in the city. But bless us, how these liverymen are branching out!

—The property of T. Rafferty advertised in The Freeman was sold at Referee's sale at the Mansion House on Friday by C. M. Preston. The purchaser was Wm. Gokey.

—Mr. Andrew Low and wife, who have taken up their residence in the Vandling house on Abruyn street, were housewarmed by a surprise party on Wednesday evening.

—A young lawyer uptown claims that he walked from the Mansion House to the Court House on Wall street on Friday in just twenty minutes. He's almost equal to that horse the other lawyer owns.

—A wagon having on a large stone for the City Hall got stuck on the horse railroad track near O'Reilly's grove on Friday afternoon, compelling passengers by the street cars to change cars at that point.

—The Young Men's Dramatic Club of this city will give an entertainment Wednesday and Thursday evenings next at Washington Hall. The particulars will be fully advertised in The Freeman next week.

—Walker & Dubois have turned out their first buggy wagon this spring, and a very handsome one it is. E. Lewis uptown is the owner, and with his handsome black shows as fine a rig as can be seen in that part of the city.

—The Georgia Minstrel performance in Music Hall on Thursday night was not largely attended, but was very good. A hit was made by the stump speaker on Artemas Sahler that brought down the house with shouts of applause.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian Church entertained their friends at the boarding-house of Mrs. Wm. Townsend, corner North Front street and Clinton avenue, where the pastor, Rev. James O. Denniston, resides, on Wednesday evening, the 22d inst. The congregations of the First Dutch and Episcopal Churches were well represented. The social netted $47.

—Complaints are made to us that some of the post office attaches of talking freely about letters and postal cards passing through their hands, telling outsiders from whom they come and to whom they are sent, and repeating the contents of postal cards. We don't know how well founded this charge is, but the mail employees would do well to be extremely cautious on these points.

Spirits at a Prominent Hotel Uptown.

An old lady over sixty years of age, and who is possessed of a most vivid imagination, while sleeping at one of the prominent hotels uptown a few nights ago, heard a noise at her chamber door, and immediately commenced to scream that a man was trying to get in her room. She took down her bed and examined the floor minutely, besides pounding every board with a huge club to see if there wasn't a trap-door somewhere in the room large enough for a man to crawl through. Every little while there would be a mysterious rattle of the door-knob, when the lady would commence to howl in a frightful manner, now and then varying the performance by throwing small but weighty articles of furniture through the ventilator over the door. This spiritual manifestation continued for over an hour, and as it was near midnight the boarders on that floor were awakened and almost frightened out of their senses, supposing at least a murder was being committed. At last the rattling of the knob ceased, and it is hoped the lady slept in peace until morning; at any rate nothing farther was heard of the man. We are sorry the good woman made so much noise, as without doubt if the spirits had not been driven away, there would have been made some startling revelations.

Look Out for Your Certificates.

Marriage certificates now-a-days must be filed with the County Clerk, according to a late statute law, and the dominies pretty generally are sending in their certificates, so that any persons intending to change their single state can see how this thing is finished by calling at the office. One of these certificates came in a few days ago and the main portion read as follows: "I hereby certify that the above-named were legally joint by me in accordance with the law of Moses and Israel."

Named by Chance.

A lady from Orange county was obliged to leave an Erie train at Owego, on Thursday last, on account of sudden illness. At the Ahwaga House a child was born. The lady boarders and others finding that the mother had but little money, charged a fee for seeing the child, and received quite a sum in that way. On Saturday evening, the gentlemen in the office threw dice, at twenty-five cents a throw, for the privilege of naming the little one. A gentleman from New York won the chance and crushed the infant by naming him Orrin Truman Bannister Van Valkenburgh.—The lady was on her way to Rathbonville.—Newburgh Journal.

Personal.

Reuben Bernard and his daughter Minnie started Thursday evening for Kansas City. They will be absent on their western tour about two months.

We have received a copy of the Rock Island, Ill., Daily Union, giving an account of a large temperance meeting on the 16th inst., of which Mr. David F. More, formerly of this city, was Secretary.

Our readers have doubtless noted and wondered at the non-appearance of "Cyrus'" letters from Albany of late, and they will regret to learn of his severe illness, which has prevented him from attending to his journalistic duties. He is recovering, however, and we hope to present several of his spicy epistles before the Legislature adjourns.

James O. Merritt and lady have returned home to this city from their tour in the south.

One of our uptown men called on Charlie Ackert the other day and found him stewing at a fearful rate about the scarcity of items.

Rats.

The store of Crosby, Lawrence & Co., on Wall street, must be a sort of headquarters for rats, if our latest advices are true. A day or two ago a small dog was in the store and commenced to bark and paw as if possessed of an infernal spirit. A search was made and three large rats were found in a drawer in the counter. How they got in no one could tell, as the drawer was almost air-tight. Since that time a number of rats have been shot in the rear of the building, and the bosses are about making up their minds to arm their clerks with the latest style of Remington breech-loading rifle so as to exterminate the pests. As it is one of these chaps are kept on the lookout for stray rats, and when one is sighted, the cry of "rats" has about the same effect on the employees, as the cry of "donkeys" did in stimulating Janet, the light-footed waiting-maid of Dickens' famous Betsey Trotwood.

The Butter Business in Andes.

We are informed by Henry Dowie that Messrs. MacBride & Williams of 333 Greenwich street, New York, who two years since introduced the pail butter business in this county, have now three thousand four hundred and thirty-three cows under contract this season, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-one of which are in the town of Andes. The weekly delivery in the village of Andes represents the make of two thousand two hundred and seventy-nine cows, and thus far each delivery day has added to their number. This butter is delivered in New York semi-weekly during the summer season, and the certainty of obtaining it in any quantity, precisely what is wanted, has given MacBride & Williams a large proportion of the best grocer trade of New York city. To what extent this centralization of the butter interests of this section at our village benefits and enlivens it is not hard to determine. It is the main-spring of our business machinery.—Andes Recorder.

Suicide at Summitville.

On Wednesday morning, the 22d, the dead body of a woman named Mrs. Reynolds, who resided at Summitville, Sullivan county, was found in a pond near her residence. Her little child was in her arms, and both had died together. In the house pinned to the table-spread was the following letter written by deceased:

"DEAR FRIEND:—Do not weep for me. I am weary of life—I can not say to live, but to die is gain. Bury the babe in my arms. I can say that I love everybody. I have a good and kind husband. I feel weak and feeble in body and mind. My prayer is that we may all meet again.

Dear husband, take good care of Hattie. You will find my body in the swamp pond.

Farewell to all."

It is supposed the lady lived very happily with her husband, and the cause of the suicide is unknown. She leaves a little girl by the name of Hattie, whom she kissed in the morning and asked if she didn't want to go with her and be drowned also. At the time of the commission of the suicide the husband of the lady was at work in Ellenville.

The Late Circuit Court.

A laborious session of the court is ended, and there isn't a doubt but that everybody in attendance gave a sigh of relief when it had finished. There is a great deal of wear and tear of mind, conscience and pocketbooks, during a session of court, to saynothing about the little annoyances that come like flea bites to worry everybody who is forced to dance attendance to the call of justice and drink from her fount of legal learning. During the nine days' session, however, a large amount of work was done and a large number of cases disposed of. Judge Boardman was a quiet sort of Judge, but he decided firmly when he did decide, and immediately shut off all debate, thus saving much valuable time without being at all unfair or tyrannical in the exercise of his judicial power. Of the 303 cases on the calendar at the opening of the session 73 have been disposed of, besides a large amount of Special Term business. The greater portion of the cases tried were probably not of a kind that would give a stranger an encouraging feeling in regard to our county, but they are exceptions—not the general rule.

Concerning Ladies in the Assembly Chamber.

Yesterday morning Speaker Husted called the attention of the House to the fact that some of the younger members of that body were in the habit of writing notes to ladies who came to watch the proceedings of the legislative body, and that his attention had been called to a case where two ladies had been insulted by these epistles. He marveled much that any member of the House could be guilty of such ungentlemanly conduct, and he warned the page boys that if any of them acted as carriers of anonymous notes to ladies in the rear of the chamber he would immediately discharge them. It is to be hoped that this prompt and commendable action of the Speaker will put an end to the contemptible actions of one or two members who manage to bring into ill-repute the good name of the House. Wednesday evening two ladies were sitting on one of the sofas when a page boy brought them a note from a member, which read as follows:

Will you not very much favor us with your company and meet us at the end of the session, in order to have a glass of wine together at Congress Hall or elsewhere.

—— AND FRIEND.

The ladies were very indignant at receiving the note, and immediately tore it up in vexation. When their escort, who was momentarily absent, returned, they informed him of the circumstance, and he, who was husband to one of the ladies, picked up the fragments, pasted them together, and yesterday morning called upon the Speaker, who was much annoyed at the transaction, particularly as it was not an exceptional case, but of common occurrence. He, therefore, very promptly made the matter public from the chair, and we can now expect that an affair of the kind will not again occur. It is but proper to say that the member whose name was attached to the note denied having written it, and says he would not be capable of such an act. We therefore omit his name.—Albany Express.

Guy & Leon's Troupe.

In our advertising columns will be found the announcement that the above troupe will exhibit at Washington Hall on Tuesday evening next. The programme is a very attractive one.

Religious Notice.

Rev. J. H. Frazer of Syracuse will preach in the Second Reformed Church on Fair street Sunday, at 10:45 A. M. and 7:30 in the evening. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Our Telegraph Operators.

Newburgh has seven telegraph operators. Kingston can beat that.—Freeman.

Enumerate them.—Newburgh Telegraph.

So you doubt us, do you, Goodrich? Well, giving a hasty thought to the matter we can count up sixteen operators and name every one of them, and there may be a dozen or two more we have forgotten or don't know, not to mention the host of youngsters, including some females, learning how. Seven operators! Oh! pshaw!

Handsome Show Window.

The handsomest show windows in the city are those of the store of Dimmick, Burhans & Webster. It is not an unusual sight to see a bevy of handsome girls looking with undisguised admiration at the brilliant-colored shawls and ribbons and the handsome laces. "Dear me!" said a little lady to herself in an undertone the other day, "if I only had that shawl, wouldn't I make his heart ache?" and she carefully counted the contents of her pocketbook, and finally went into the store. We have no doubt but that his heart did ache after that.

Coal Trade.

An arrangement has been consummated between the Delaware & Hudson Canal and Pennsylvania Coal Companies for an equal division of the coal trade along the line of the Erie Railway.

Mrs. O'Reilly's Statement.

We published yesterday what purported to be Mrs. O'Reilly's statement of the alleged attempt at rape. It was brought to the office by young Dolan, and we supposed of course Mrs. O'Reilly's signature was genuine. On Friday afternoon, however, she called at the office, and denied that she had ever signed or ever been asked to sign such a statement. In regard to the facts she states that Dolan used very rough language, but not of an indecent character, and caught hold of her arms, leaving the marks of his fingers upon them, but he made no attempt at rape. She and her children were very much frightened, and the latter cried bitterly.

Break in the Canal.

A break in the banks of the Delaware & Hudson Canal occurred on Friday morning near Port Jackson. The break is about twenty-four feet in length. The passage of boats, it is supposed, will be delayed until this, Saturday, morning.

Tows.

The following were yesterday's tows:

Steamers George A. Hoyt and Oswego—Schooner Capitol, barges Tacona, Saw Mill, Concording, boat F. C. Brown, Minnie Rippiier, 15 D. & H. Co.'s boats to New York; boat 3,029 to Haverstraw.

Steamer Baltic—Barge Columbia, boat Ponckhockie, Monocacy, W. B. Hinkley, Alligator, Mechanic, Martha, M. C. Seaman, No. 2,008 to Albany; J. Norton to Stuyvesant.

Propeller Farrington—Boat No. 163 to Wappinger's Falls; 1,459, 665 to Po'keepsie; 627 to West Point.

Propeller Columbia—Two Wrecking Boats, 3 Penn. Coal Co.'s boats, boat R. Cahill, 2 D. & H. Co.'s boats to Hudson.

Up tows from New York:

Boats W. Young, Hattie Wheeler and Anna Maria; boat W. Quinn to Low Point; barge David Terry, D. & H. C. Co.'s boats.

Attempted Burglary.

On Monday night burglars made an attempt to force an entrance into the residence of Rev. A. F. Olmstead on Montgomery street. They forced open a pair of glass doors entering into the parlor and the noise occasioned by the act awakened the family, who immediately instituted a search for the thieves. But they had fled. The thieves who made this attempt were probably the ones who were seen about here on Sunday and Monday. They wore long Ulster overcoats, belted in at the waist; in passing by one of these characters Mr. Harry Tremper spied a black mask underneath the lappel of the fellow's coat and so informed the authorities, who caused a watch to be set in the village during the night. Look to your doors and windows.—Rhinebeck Gazette.

Surveys for a large one have been completed near the head of Lackawaxen Canal above Honesdale. Superintendent Atkinson also recommends the building of a feeder between the Narrows and the mouth of the Lackawaxen, a distance of twelve miles of canal that depends on one source for its supply of water—Middletown Mercury.

OUR FREE PARLIAMENT.

Some persons who are laboring under the impression that they know more about my business than I do myself, are circulating the report that the reputed sale of the Opera House to me is a "blind," and not a bona fide business transaction. I take this method of publicly announcing that the sale is a genuine business operation, and that on Monday of next week I take possession of the Rondout Opera House as its sole proprietor.

LOUIS APPLETON.

East Kingston's New Name.

EDITOR FREEMAN:—Your correspondent Rex, in yesterday's issue, proposes some other better and more euphonious name in the place of East Kingston, and suggests South Flatbush. Don't do it, Rex! We are too well supplied with bushes already. We have Pine Bush, Flatbush, Cripple Bush, besides about a dozen darkies by the name of Bush, several of which have been on a visit to Albany to settle up the affairs of a little poultry episode. No, don't give us anything in the Bush line; but rather something that indicates its location. How would Riverside or Rivermouth, or Westover or Riverbank do? There is every assurance that the place is not only rapidly growing, but that in a few years it will be one of considerable commercial importance, and that soon residences both costly and rare will here adorn the banks of the river. Therefore we say, give us a pleasing name rather than one that smacks of western pioneering.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE FREE FROM ALCOHOL. DR WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS. EUREKA

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs found on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal properties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked. "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of VINEGAR BITTERS?" Our answer is, that they remove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the system. Never before in the history of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of VINEGAR BITTERS in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs in Bilious Diseases

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant Sudorific, Alterative, and Anti-Bilious.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelminitics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.
